PERSONALITY
WILL REMAIN

Tribute Paid to the Late
Bishop Rix at Funeral Rite
Yesterday

"The presence of the personality of he who has been our friend and spiritual father and who has now gone to the state of eternal happiness, joining so soon the one who had been his beloved helpmate and companion, will be with us many years," said Ven. Archdeacon E. Hodson of Ocean Falls in delivering an address of testimonial at the funeral yesterday of the late Rt. Rev. G. A. Rix, Bishop of Caledonia. The archdeacon paid tribute to the Bishop for his faith in the church and his loyalty to the Master. To those in trouble, his great sympathy had always been a comfort. He had also been imbued with a stern sense of duty to the diocese and the clergy. "Let us be comforted that his personality is

LABOR-PROGRESSIVE LEADER HEARD

Mrs. D. G. Little, Terrace's delegate to the Red Cross convention in Vancouver, gave her report to the meeting of the local branch on her return last week. There was a very good attendance of Red Cross members under chairman R. M. Cory. Terrace has succeeded in making something better than its quota in the drive for funds just with God and shall never die." Very Rev. James B. Gibson, dean of the Cathedral, was in charge of the service. Rev. Rural Dean J. M. McCormick of Fort Fraser read the Scripture and Rev. Canon W. F. Rushbrook led in prayer. Many other clergy of the diocese were in procession and present in the chancel. The service was choral and the Cathedral was completely filled. The remains were sent last night to Vancouver where interment will take place.

completed, having collected well over the $900 quota.

Tom McEwen spoke for the Labor-Progressive party Tuesday night in the O.G. fellows' Hall.

Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Olsen left Terrace last week for Burns Lake where they plan to operate a sawmill. Mr. Olsen has closed down his jewelry business which he operated here for the past three years.

William Osborne, machinist, who started a shop in Smiths Garage, will be moving into George Little's residence on Lakelse Ave. Miss Clara Little and her sister, Dorothy, will move from the big house into the cottage on the adjoining lot.

Well attended Easter services were held in all the churches on Sunday. The weather was fine and new Easter bonnets could be worn without fear of blemish.

The regular Thursday afternoon meeting of the Service Wives' Club was attended by 29 wives and 20 children. The afternoon was spent in sewing numbers on the sweaters of the Navy hockey team and knitting for the Red Cross. The writing room was turned into a play room for the children for the afternoon. At the close of the meeting lunch was served by Mrs. Craig, Mrs. Parker and Mrs. Perry.

Tonight's program includes Bingo in the upstairs writing room.

In the common lounge Lois Vaughan will be at the piano for the regular Friday night sing song.

Sunday afternoon the Y.M.C.A. travelling art exhibit will be held in the auditorium from 3 p.m. An open invitation is extended to all, both civilians and service personnel to view this excellent collection of photographs.

Firelight lent a magic spell to the common lounge Wednesday night for the second of our week-long musical programs. Under the direction of Bob Morrison these evenings are designed as an hour of relaxation for all those who enjoy the beauty of music. The program was chosen and commentaries written on each selection by Bob Fleming but, as he was unable to be present, Bob Morrison handled the program notes.

In the upstairs writing room bingo was the popular pastime. Winners of the special prize was W. M. Serby, R.C.E.M.E., who won a cushion cover.

Last night's movie was Christmas Holiday.

Cribbage was played last night in the writing room beginning at 8 o'clock.

You are reminded of the hour of Christian worship held in the lounge daily from 12:15 to 1:15. This is a non-denominational group and a welcome is extended to all to join in this fellowship hour.

Air Force and Navy met last night in the first of a two-out-of-three series for the championship of the Area Floor Hockey League. Air Force won a bye into the finals by virtue of their completing the league season in top position and Navy qualified to play them in the final by defeating the Fortress team in a tough two-game series. Navy have made two changes in their line-up since the Fortress series, replacing men who have been forced to leave the team and R.C.A.F. also have changed their first string forward line with two of the wingmen having left on furlough. A tough series is expected as Navy are confident that they will give the powerful Air Force team their first setback of the season.

to the "Y" physical office yesterday morning and said, "we can lick those boys any night of the week, or any day or any time." Upon being queried as to who and what he was talking about he said that they were out after the Soo Suds basketball team and were officially accepting the challenge of Coach Mike Weaver of the Soo Suds so it looks as though the fur will be flying early next week in an exhibition basketball game between the feuding Navy and Soo Suds hoopers.
