ACROPOLIS HILL SURPRISE PARTY

Miss Dorothy Robb Honored Before Leaving for Toronto

The "Circus Room" of the American Corporal's club on Acropolis Hill last night was the scene of a surprise farewell party in honor of Miss Dorothy Robb, civilian employee of the Prince Rupert sub-port of embarkation, who leaves for her home in Toronto this evening.

Miss Robb, who was formerly attached to the Toronto Star, Mayfair magazine, and other leading Canadian publications, has formed part of the staff of Acropolis News, a camp newspaper of the sub-port, for many months. Prior to coming to this city, she was employed by the United States Army on the Alaska Highway at Dawson Creek.

Among those of the more than 40 people who attended this function were Captain F. S. Otis, information and education officer, Sgt. Bob Elston and Walt Montgomerie, editors of the Acropolis News, and Cpl. Howard Sandler, staff artist.

Included in the farewell party and as a guest of honor of the club with President Douglas Sweeney acting as official host was Miss Beatrice Didrickson, attractive Junior Chamber of Commerce aspirant for the royal throne at the Civic Centre Carnival to be held here August 6-11.
