

PLAN CHRISTMAS BANQUET FOR OLDER PEOPLE

Prince Rupert's senior citizens are to have their annual Christmas banquet this year on December 20 in the Knights of Columbus Hall, the Women's Coordinating Council decided at a meeting held last week in the city council chamber. At the meeting plans were made to make the banquet, which is for the enjoyment of all residents over the age of 70, even better than the highly successful ones of previous years.

The meeting appointed committees to handle the program, transportation and the dinner. Twenty-five representatives of women's organizations in the city attended. Mrs. J. J. Gillis, the president, was chairman. The council hopes to gain the active support of an even greater number of organizations in order to make the function a truly community project. In the past the work has been done by the Co-ordinating Council with financial support from other groups. Prizes will be awarded for such distinctions as the oldest person present, the eldest couple, the person longest resident in Prince Rupert.

Following are the committees which will arrange the dinner:
Food soliciting—Mrs. George Rudderham.
Dinner convener—Mrs. A. L. Haines.
Invitations—Mrs. D. Orchard McLeod, Mrs. C. Ingham.
Program—Mrs. D. C. Stuart.
Prizes—Mrs. Alex Mitchell.
Decorations—Mrs. C. F. McCarthy.
Transportation—Mr. Murphy, Miss Doris Brewster.
Donations—Mrs. D. Orchard McLeod.
Mrs. D. Orchard McLeod was appointed secretary of the council following the resignation of Mrs. C. Ingham from that position.

"Despite modern inventions, the newspaper remains and will remain for some time to come the best medium to guide public opinion."—Most Rev. Norbert Rochibaud, Archbishop of Montreal.

Briefs From Britain

By the Canadian Press

LONDON (P)—Handkerchiefs made from surplus anti-gas cloth and barrage-balloon fabrics are to be sold in British stores.

DEVONPORT, Eng. (P)—The battleships Resolution and Revenge, now moored here, will become schools for stokers.

SLOUGH, Eng. (P)—Because footballs are unobtainable, boys here were seen recently using cabbages in their place.

MELTON MOWBRAY, Eng. (P)—Rolled oats were used instead of confetti at a wedding here.

LONDON (P)—A school for cooks and housemaids is to be started here. They'll be known as "house assistants," however.

ORMSKIRK, Eng. (P)—Scarbrick Hall, Lancashire, home of Sir Edward Scarbrick, has been bought for $270,000 by the Church of England for a training college for teachers.

OVERSTRAND, Eng. (P)—Jean Davis, 10, a Brownie, has been awarded the Girl Guides' silver cross for gallantry. She rescued her small brother from drowning.

DRESSED TURKEY CEILING PRICES

With the Christmas season approaching, the Wartime Prices and Trade Board issues ceiling prices for dressed turkeys. The wholesale and retail prices differ slightly in various zones of Canada. The following are the ceiling per pound in British Columbia from December 15 to December 31, 1945:

	Wholesale	Retail
Special	38½	46
Grade A	37½	44
Grade B	35½	42
Grade C	32½	39

Producers board officers advise prices to market their turkeys early in December to assure the public of an adequate distribution of turkey supplies. This season's buoyant market will afford the producer a good opportunity for early sales.

Modern Etiquette

By ROBERTA LEE

- Q. What should one do when calling to see a friend, and one sees that she is preparing to go out?
- A. Tell your friend that you see she is ready to go out, and that you will call again.
- Q. Isn't it the privilege of a bridesmaid to choose the color and style of her own gown?
- A. No: this is always the privilege of the bride to decide.
- Q. Is it correct to say "man and wife," instead of "husband and wife"?
- A. Either form is correct.

PORTRAIT OF A POPULAR "IN-LAW"

MOTHER BARNES is her son-in-law's favorite relative. Mind you, there was a time when Mother's visits sent him scurrying for cover. But that was before her doctor told her that the caffeine in tea and coffee was making her irritable—and suggested Postum instead.

Mother loves Postum. It's so full-flavored and heartening—not like tea, not like coffee, just downright delicious in its own right. And Postum contains no caffeine—no other drug that might affect heart or nerves or digestion.

Postum is made instantly, right in the cup, just by adding hot milk or boiling water. Costs less than a cent a serving. Try Postum today!
