Hess Not Forgetful

Tells War Crimes Tribunal Today That He Was Only Feigning Loss of Memory

PRINCE RUPERT, Nov. 30 (CP)—Rudolf Hess told the international military tribunal on war crimes today that he accepts "full responsibility for all I have done, signed or co-signed" and he wishes to continue on trial with his fellow Nazis. Hess declared he had feigned loss of memory, even to his own attorney, for "tactical reasons."

The court adjourned without announcing a ruling on the mental fitness of the former No. 2 deputy Fuehrer whom Allied psychiatrists have reported sane but suffering from hysteria. Defence medical advisers expressed the opinion that Hess' latest statement that he was not suffering from amnesia was an illustration of the "quirks of mind which can make him irresponsible."
