JUVENILES VOTES ARE NOW OUT IN NORTH IRELAND

War-time Identity Cards Put
Stop to Old Election Practice

BELFAST, July 27 (P)—The day of the juvenile voter is ended in Northern Ireland, thanks to the war-time identity cards. When results of the Northern Ireland general election were announced only adult votes had been counted.

Who began the juvenile voting practice is not recorded but its operation was simple.

John McKay or Eleanor Jones, each a registered voter, would die leaving children by the same name. Expert vote canvassers, when they ran into this circumstance, would have the children produced of voting day. No one thought of questioning their right to cast ballots—their names were on the records.

One newspaperman who became a member of parliament told of a child so young that he had to be taught to pronounce his own one-syllable name. He was taken to the polling station and asked by his proud mother which candidate would get his vote. The child spoke the name with difficulty and an assisted hand made an "X."

Last April an order was issued which ended the practice. A woman married since the voters' register was compiled was required to produce a certificate obtained at the nearest police barracks, to prove she was the person whose maiden name appeared on the list. A war-time identity card also was required to be produced in doubtful cases.

SAYS CANADA GREAT POWER IN INDUSTRY

PARIS, July 27 (P)—Warm tribute to Canada's war effort was paid by "La Tribune Economique," a newly founded, non-partisan weekly newspaper.

Pointing to the difficulties that lie ahead for the Dominion, "passing from the economy of war to the economy of peace" the article stated, "in no other country have the changes in national life been so profound since the beginning of the war."

The paper gave the staggering figures of Canada's wartime industry and explained, "In 1940 Canada was a large agricultural country. Today she is an industrial power of the first order."

"Canada has become the arsenal of the British Commonwealth."

The writer said that Canada,

Fisherman's Ashes Committed to Sea

Recently a group of fishermen gathered at Riddon Point on Smith's Inlet to pay their last respects to a fisherman, Percy Ulysses Sabin.

A number of Sabin's friends from Boswell and Margaret Bay participated in the simple but stirring service led by Lief Wike. In accordance with Sabin's last request, his friend Charlie Anderson gave the ashes into the "keeping of the sea" that Percy had loved so well.

If he is going to maintain her industrial progress, needs a tariff free world and a long term program of development to exploit most beneficially the country's natural resources.

The article reflected the deep interest that French people in all walks of life have developed in Canada and her future, and Canadians in Paris are besieged with questions on immigration and living conditions in Canada.

MAKING TRIPS TO KETCHIKAN

Prince Rupert Sends Winners
In Bond Contest North

Sixteen lucky soldiers of the Prince Rupert Sub-Port of Embarkation are making trips to Ketchikan this month. Their trips are at the expense of the War Bond Committee of the sub-port.

To speed the drive of the Seventh War Loan among military personnel, Captain F. S. Otis, war bond officer, offered one free trip to Alaska for each fifty bonds purchased. The names of the soldier bond purchasers went into a pool, and for each 50 bond buyers a winner was drawn on a lottery basis. This scheme boosted the sale of bonds among soldier personnel to more than 800 purchasers.

Winners in the contest who are heading for Ketchikan are S-Sgt. Clarence E. Burg, Robert S. Geer, Leroy W. Herrmann, and Robert C. McDaniel; Cpls. Eugene Giles, John Hrymak, Harold S. Mogren, Edward H. Simpson; and Pfc. Philip Kuner, Donald J. Mahon.

FURNACES A FACTOR

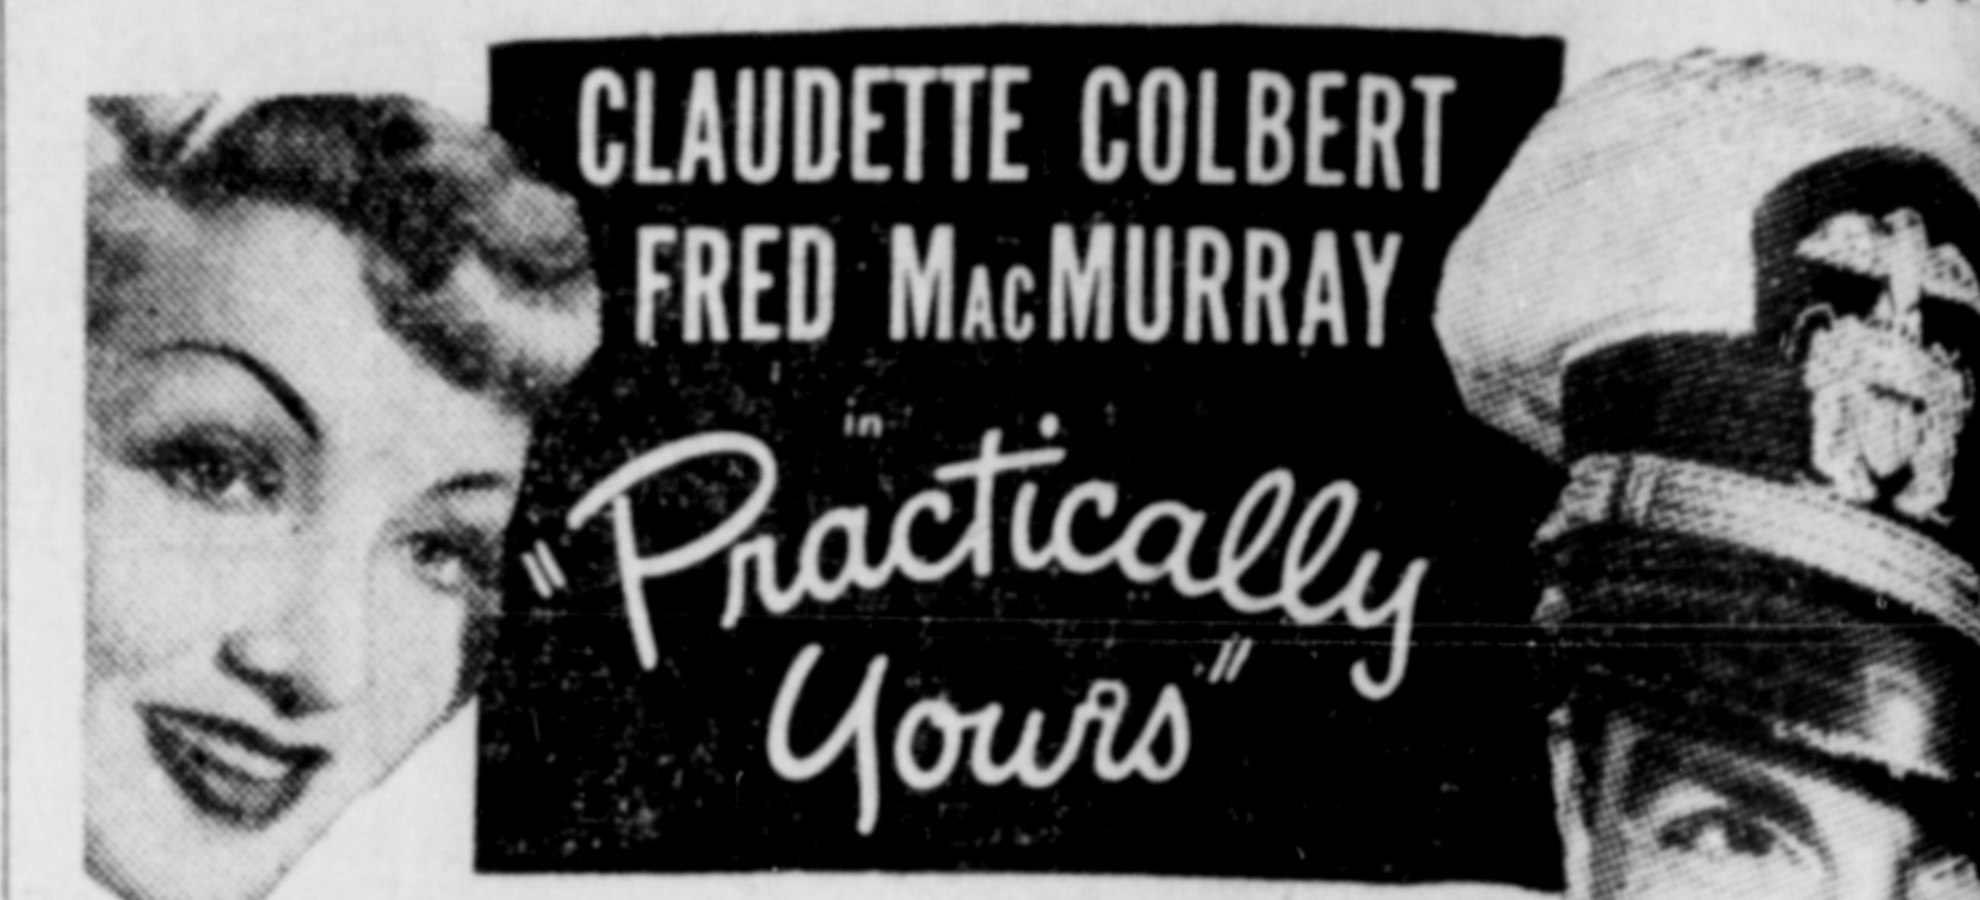

LONDON, (P)—The fuel ministry has been advised in a report from the Kent Coalfield Survey Committee that more than 1,000,000 tons of iron ore a year could be produced in Kent during the next century but special blast furnaces would be needed.

Aiding Canada At This Time— The National Employment Service is equipped to help job-seekers—both men and women—through its local Employment Offices in 200 cities and towns.

These offices also offer effective service to employers needing workers.

Employers and workers can aid in finishing the Pacific War and in reconversion and reconstruction by making full use of the Local Employment Offices.

Several restrictive Manpower Controls have been removed—but because of continuing unfilled vacancies in important industries, others have to be continued for the present.

The labour situation has not yet been met in some top-ranking priorities—home building, food production, textiles, and others. Hence, the Controls that remain. Mainly, these include:

SEVEN-DAY NOTICE TO TERMINATE EMPLOYMENT, REMAINS: any man or woman, 16 to 65 years of age, wishing to leave employment in industry or commerce must give 7 days' notice to his employer in prescribed form, or an employer must give an employee similar notice, unless Regulations provide specifically for shorter notice, or unless an Employment Office approves shorter notice.

MEN MAY NOT LEAVE JOBS IN "DESIGNATED" ESTABLISHMENTS: only with permission of the Employment Office may men leave jobs in "designated" establishments.

EMPLOYERS MUST REPORT VACANCIES: Regulations still require employers in industry and commerce to list all vacant positions—whether for men or for women—with the nearest Local Employment Office.

UNEMPLOYED MEN MUST REGISTER: men who are unemployed are still required to register at the nearest Local Employment Office, if unemployed 7 days.

MEN REQUIRE PERMITS TO SEEK OR ACCEPT EMPLOYMENT: it is still illegal for a male person, 16 to 65 years of age, to seek employment without a permit, in practically any industry except agriculture; also, it is still illegal for an employer to hire such a male person without a permit.

FEMALE WORKERS ACCEPTING EMPLOYMENT MUST BE REPORTED: while women and girls seeking work in industry or commerce may do so without a permit, either the employer or the worker must report the fact to the nearest Employment Office within three days of the time a woman is hired.

MEN MAY NOT LEAVE EMPLOYMENT AFTER DIRECTION: men already moved to employment under compulsory direction, may not leave the employment to which they have been transferred, without permission.

MEN MAY NOT LEAVE AGRICULTURE: during the present busy season on the farm, men may not leave agriculture without permission of the Local Employment Office. Any man from agriculture, working at another job, is liable to direction back to farm employment. Employers may not hire men from agriculture, except with permission.

RIGHT OF DIRECTION: Employment Offices may still direct male persons, 16 to 65 years of age, to work at agriculture, mining, and a few other basic industries.

LABOUR EXIT PERMITS: Labour Exit Permits are still required by anyone wishing to seek or enter employment outside Canada: apply at your Employment Office.

ADVERTISING: Permission to advertise in regard to the engagement of male employees is necessary, before such advertising may be issued.

National Employment Service to ease Transition

The National Employment Service, by effectively organizing the employment market in Canada, can do much to ease the economic effects of the transition from war to peace.

Employers and work seekers, both men and women, are urged to co-operate by using the placement facilities of the National Employment Service.
