BORDEN STREET SCHOOL'S WAR SAVINGS RECORD

PRINCIPAL CHEESEMAN AND TEACHER MARY SIM PROUD OF ACCOMPLISHMENT

If Grade III at Borden Street School has not set a provincial record for school classes in war savings, it is believed by Principal S. A. Cheeseman to have come mighty close to it. During the school year from September to June the children of this grade, numbering thirty-six, saved $556 in war savings stamps and bought Victory Bonds to the tune of $350. Miss Mary D. Sim is the popular teacher of the class. Borden Street School, as a whose, has a war savings record of which teachers and 220 pupils in all grades are proud because, during the year, they bought $2328 of war savings stamps and $2300 of Victory Bonds.

In urging the purchase of war securities, Principal Cheeseman and his staff have inculated the basic principals of hastening victory, personal benefit, thrift, self-confidence and publicity for Prince Rupert through endeavouring to establish a record.

The thrifty pupils of Grade III at Borden

Street School are: Ross Anderson, Billy Balicky, Ronald Black, William Blackaby, Harold Brentzen, June Burnip, Ethel Calder, David Cameron, Nick Christy, Beverley Comer, Ronald Daum, Rose Evans, Herbert Frandle, Arthur Good, Patricia Gurvich, Dorothy Hibbard, Carole Hill, Alfred Hodgkinson, Marion Horne, Patricia Johnson, Sherrill Lashmar, Ellen Lundquist, Harold Lundquist, Maureen Mackenzie, Chester Miller, Joyce Moorehouse, Tommy Moorehouse, James McPherson, Michael Nastuny, Darlene Olsen, Eddie Olsen, John Renfro, Olive Strand, Pattie Toogood, Bobby Watts, Margaret Youngman.

James Parker was welcomed as a new member of the club and will be initiated later.

Ernest Brown, member of the Trail Gyro Club, was a guest at the luncheon.
