JUNIOR RED CROSS BUSY

Has Achieved Much and Expanded, Margaret Palmer Reports

VANCOUVER, July 17—Children in every town, city and hamlet in British Columbia, as members of the Junior Red Cross Society, have rolled up a record for themselves in the past year in membership and in contributions toward helping other less fortunate children at home and abroad.

Miss Margaret Palmer, B. C. director of the junior society, has just finished compiling membership and contributions during the past school year and reports that membership reached 67,945, an increase of nearly 10,000 over the previous year. Organization of 2,135 branches, 369 more than the previous year, set a record for this province while senior high school membership increased from 6,869 to 11,743.

By various means, such as fairs, sports meets and funds obtained through work of self-sacrifice, the Juniors of B. C. contributed nearly $850,000 in the past year. This money was used to help other children, through the Junior Red Cross Crippled and Handicapped Children's Fund and in aiding the war effort through their War Fund. More than $33,000 was used for this latter work which includes support of war nurseries, supplies of food and clothing for child war victims and comforts for prisoners of war.

EXCITEMENT IN WESTERN DRAMA

John Wayne and Ella Raines Coming in "Tall in the Saddle"
Three-way romance and plenty of action are featured in the western drama, "Tall in the Saddle," starring John Wayne and Ella Raines, which comes to the screen of the Capitol Theatre here this Wednesday and Thursday.

Wayne plays a tough ranch foreman with an aversion for women who finds, on taking a new job, that the owner of the ranch has been mysteriously murdered and the ranch passed on to a woman. He refuses to work for this woman and takes a job at a neighboring ranch—only to find it also owned by a woman, the beautiful fiery-tempered Miss Raines. He incurs her dislike and she does all she can to humiliate him but nevertheless her interest increases. A tempestuous romance ensues with excitement provided in the tracking down of a murderer. The supporting cast includes a newcomer, Audrey Long, George (Gabby) Hayes, Elicabeth Risdon and others.
