The parlors of St. Paul's Lutheran Church were the scene of a very successful tea and sale Saturday afternoon, sponsored by the church ladies' aid. Tables and booths were colorful with vases of chrysanthemums and the large number of visitors made the function a very active one. Convener was Mrs. Gus Mostad, president of St. Paul's Ladies' Aid.

Particularly well attended were the apron and home cooking booths and refreshments were served to scores of visitors. In charge of the home cooking booth were Mrs. L.
