Cannery Glutted With Herring road opening ceremony. Port Edward to Can Clams

Packers are bringing in herring to Nelson Bros. cannery at Port Edward in such quantity that the cannery is reported to be completely "plugged up." Tuesday several packers were standing by at Port Edward in process of unloading or waiting to be unloaded. Their cargo will keep the plant busy for some time to come. The packer Wawanesa unloaded herring at B.C. Packers here Tuesday.

at Port Edward and canning operations are expected to begin Put a few drops of Vicks Va-tro-nol about January 27. Clam digging is dependent on tide levels. When low water drops below the four-foot level the clam beaches become available to the diggers. The next low tide cycle is due January 24 and from that date on quantities of clams will flow to the cannery.
