FINE PICTURES SEEN BY GYROS

Two interesting talking pictures in support of the Ninth Victory Loan-one based on the various war speeches of former Prime Minister Winston Churchill and illustrated by appropriate scenes of war's progress, the other depicting remarkable incidents of physio and occupational therapy among war casualties-featured the program at the regular weekly luncheon yesterday of the Prince Rupert Gyro Club. W. D. Lambie was in charge of the program and the projector was handled by Cpl. F. D. Smith. Dr. J. J. Gibson, president of the club, was in the chair and Major J. W. Kilpatrick, a former member of the club now on active service, was present and duly welcomed.
