CONCENTRATE ON NORWAY

Now that German submarine bases along the French coast have been virtually eliminated, the south coast of Norway has become the focal point for Allied attacks against u-boat pens.

RED CROSS

Wherever the Canadian Army moves today, nearby you will find Red Cross workers. There are now nearly 400 members of the Canadian Red Cross Corps serving overseas, 30 of them from British Columbia. Three of the latter are serving on the continent, two in France and one in Italy.

In addition to corps members who staff London headquarters, canteens, clubs or service centres, there are many attached to hospitals as welfare and handicraft workers, while others have been supplied to civilian hospitals, including one girl from B.C. There are also 51 Canadian Corps girls attached to the British Red Cross as transport drivers, six of these girls being from British Columbia. Their work is to meet hospital planes and boats, bearing wounded from the fighting fronts, and transport them to British hospitals.

B. C. girls serving overseas include: Mrs. Marjory Williams, Penticton, and Mrs. Mable Kissner, Prince George, transport duty; Daphne Royle, Kelowna, Kathleen Clarke, Vernon, Mrs. E. R. Wightman, Powell River, R. Scammell, North Vancouver, all at B. C. Canteen; Eileen Wilkins Victoria, and Coralie Field, North Vancouver, British Red Cross transport drivers; Miss Marlon Stewart, Victoria, V.A.D. in civilian hospital; Pauline Griffiths and Sheila Moffat, Victoria, and R. Towsley, North Vancouver, with headquarters staff in London; Mrs. E. M. Senay, New Westminster, No. 2 Maple Leaf Club.

Vancouver corps members overseas include: Vera Ings, Gene McNichol, Marcia David-

PLANE CRASHES, PILOT MISSING

VANCOUVER, Jan. 16 (C)—A Royal Canadian Air Force airman is still missing following the crash of a Kittyhawk fighter aircraft in the Fraser River near Whonnock, nine miles west of Mission. The plane, with two others from a Royal Canadian Air Force west coast station, was practising low level formation flying when the engine cut out and it plunged into the river. Next of kin of the missing pilot have been informed and the name will be released shortly.

COAST REG'T W.A. MEETING

Successful Year is Recorded—New Officers Elected

The secretary's annual report at the annual meeting of the Women's Auxiliary, Coast Regiment, last evening at the home of Mrs. E. P. Smith, Sixth Ave., with Mrs. William Brass, president, in the chair, showed a very satisfactory year. The reading of letters from local boys who have gone overseas and who are the regular recipients of cigarettes and parcels from the auxiliary proved that these efforts are much appreciated. Reports were also received from Mrs. R. S. Woods, in charge of raffles, from Mrs. Vic Houston, the hospital visitor, and from Mrs. Ronald Roberts in charge of cigarettes for overseas.

The following officers were re-elected by acclamation:

Honorary President, Mrs. C. V. Evitt.

President, Mrs. William Brass. Vice-President, Mrs. R. Woods. Secretary, Mrs. E. P. Smith. Treasurer, Mrs. Ronald Roberts.

During the meeting a letter was read from Mrs. Attree, the mother of Harry Attree, who was killed in action in Italy recently, in which mention was made of cigarettes and parcels received regularly by him from the auxiliary.

LOCAL SAILOR WEDS AT NELSON

At a recent double ring ceremony in the Manse, St. Paul's United Church, Nelson, Mary Lorraine, youngest daughter of Captain and Mrs. James Ferguson, Sunshine Bay, Nelson, was given in marriage by her father to Leading Telegrapher William Bremner, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. John Bremner, Prince Rupert. Rev. Stuart Forbes officiated. The bride, who was attired in a suit of teal blue with accessories to match, was attended by Miss Leita Lawrence of Souris, Manitoba.

Groomsman was Clarence Sewell of Ocean Falls.

After the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served, following which the bride and groom left on a honeymoon trip to Spokane. On their return they will leave for Halifax where the bridegroom, well known local boy, will join his ship.
