Feature Program at I.O.D.E. Meeting Last Night

Under the auspices of Municipal Chapter, Imperial Order, Daughters of the Empire, Sergt. Lance Potterton, city police chief, last night showed to an appreciative audience which filled the I.O.D.E. Hall to capacity moving pictures of many of the beauty spots of British Columbia, all taken by himself. In addition, he showed a very instructive film of the lobster industry on the Atlantic Coast. The hour and a half which it took to show the pictures passed very quickly. Sgt. Potterton was assisted by M. J. Harper of the National Film Board.

Vocal solos were rendered by Mrs. G. L. Brown and J. A. Teng and pianoforte selections by J. Franky. Mrs. Stewart Donaldson was accompanist for the eve-

Mrs. J. A. Teng presided at the door and the chair was occupied by Mrs. D. C. Stuart, Municipal

The proceeds from this entertainment will go to the I.O.D.E. Second War Memorial Fund.
