Beautify Your Home; Will Cost Nothing Extra

Beautification of residential properties by the planting and cultivation of lawns, shrubbery and flower gardens does not raise those properties in value from the standpoint of taxation assessment, George Lafleche, Vancouver valuator, told the civic Court of Revision Monday afternoon.

Mr. Lafleche was giving testi-Brigadier Thomas Mundy, gen- mony in appeal by Robert Goreral secretary of Young eople's don against the assessment on Work for the Salvation Army land occupied by his residence. with headquarters in Toronto, 620 Seventh Avenue East, which who was to have visited Prince was raised from $325 to $400 per

"I want it made plain that home-owners are not assessed for beautification of their land nor for painting their houses," Mr. Lafleche said. "They are not penalized for making their city and their homes more at-

Only in cases where such of actual construction, such as the building of conservatories, greenhouses, rockeries or fish ponds, do the improvements come under the notice of the tax assessor, he said.

Mr. Gordon, who described himself to the court as "an ardent booster for a beautiful Prince Rupert," said that he was satisfied that there was no penalty for the beautification of homes and cited the equal assessments on his own improv-Job's Daughters piano concert, ed and unimproved lots as proof

"I have always urged homeowners to plant trees and flowers and make their place attractive. I am glad of the chance to clear up this misunderstanding," he declared.

Mr. Gordon received the following judgments in appeals for assessment reductions on various parcels of land and property:

Assessments on four lots on the south side of Third Avenue near McBride Street were re-

SHIVERING BERLINERS WAIT FOR COAL RATION—The biggest problem confronting the local constabulary is that of apprehending Berlin's latest culprit—the coal thief. Dropping temperature and a severe cold spell in the offing, has brought more than 200 offenders into the courts in a single week. Here, people of Berlin may be seen waiting for their meagre coal ration.

Aged Pioneer Succumbed Suddenly On Second Avenue

Ernest Long, a resident of Prince Rupert since 1913 and well known formerly as a coast fisherman, collapsed and died on Second Avenue across from the Park Avenue intersection at 11 o'clock this morning. He was 90 years old.

A native of Iceland, Mr. Long came to Canada in 1877. He was a fisherman on Lake Winnipeg and worked on C.P.R. construction before coming to B.C. He was a fisherman at Osland, on Smith Island for many years then came to Prince Rupert in 1913. He has been living in retirement at the home of his son, Richard Long, 1222 Beach Place for the last 20 years.

He is survived by his son, Richard, and a grandson, William,
