LEGION W. A. AIDS HOSTEL

Overseas Brides to be Guests at Banquet

At the regular monthly meeting of the Canadian Legion Women's Auxiliary in the club rooms Thursday night, with the president, Mrs. J. S. Black, presiding, support of the auxiliary in connection with the newly opened Salvation Army Hostel was approved and plans were made to assist in whatever way possible.

The welfare commtitee reported having assisted two needy families.

The annual banquet was reported on and it was decided to invite all the overseas brides to this affair. The committee in charge consists of Mesdames Rothwell, W. J. Lineham, D Bean, C. Michaloff, B. Bouzek, and P. Bond.

Arrangements were made for the spring sale to be held May 9, with Mrs. D. Parent, convener assisted by Mesdames J. Wallace, W. Rothwell, W. J. Lineham, K. Twaites, D. Domez and W. Bryant.

Mrs. Dan Parent was elected as delegate to the Women's Co-ordination Council.

The ward at the hospital was discussed and it was decided to confer with the Legion branch before making any definite plans.

The raffle was won by Mrs. J. S. Black, proceeds of which are to be kept for the Salvation Army Hostel fund.

Mrs. F. Barber was winner of the cash collection.
