Readying for Halibut Season Opening May 1-Two C.P.R. Liners in Port

With trolling boats heading away for the grounds this week, local waterfront servicing establishments are now concentrating on the halibut fleet which will now be engaged in finalizing preparations for the cpening of their season on May 1. It is expected there will be about 70 halibut vessels again operating out of Prince Rupert this year and, as it has been since 1940, the various fleets will fish without lay-overs until the year's quotas are exhausted. Last year the fishing in Area No. 2, in which most of Prince Rupert vessels operate, lasted but 41 days. Business preparatory to the opening of the season, largely of routine nature, was dealt with at a meeting of the Deep Sea Fishermen's Union last week with President John Synes in the

PREPARE FOR CANADIAN CONGRESS-An architect's model of the huge outdoor altar to be erected for the Marian Congress at Ottawa, Ont., June 18-22, is dwarfed by Archbishop Alexandre Vachon, of Ottawa. The theme of the congress, the world's first great post-war Catholic religious demonstration, will be a lasting peace. The structure, when complete, will be 550 feet long, 155 feet high at the tower and will seat 75,000 persons.

Kita Hayworth in "Gilda" Coming to Capitol Theatre

Lovely Rita Hayworth has her first important dramatic role in "Gilda" a romantic, tensely keyed story, moving against a lush South American background of human passion and intrigue, which will be seen at the Capitol Theatre here this Thursday to Saturday. With candid, raw and fresh characterizations in a provocative plot. the film brings stark realism to the screen with inrilling im-

Miss Hayworth is a glamorous, high-spirited and seductive bride who arrives in Buenos Aires as the bride of George Macready, sadistic owner of a gambling casino. Glenn Ford has the male lead in the piece as the unscrupulous gambler who cannot get Gilda out of his heart. The fast moving picture has a thrilling climax.
