READ GRADE MARKS

Just as no driver should travel a road without reading the signposts, no housewife should buy food without first reading the grade marks on the packages. These are the sign-posts directing her on the road to economy, for they show the quality of the goods she is buying.

Many foods sold in Canada are graded according to quality and so marked—eggs, poultry, butter, honey, fresh fruits and vegetables, canned fruits and vegetables, jams, jellies, canned poultry, and maple syrup may all be purchased this way. The Dominion is the first country in the world to have a national system of grading for these foods.

The Department of Agriculture and its consumer section has just adopted the slogan "Buy by Grade—Buy with Confidence," issued a new bulletin called "Buy by Grade," which will be sent free on request.

PREPARING ONIONS

Cream 'em or fry 'em—too many persons seem to think these are the only ways to prepare onions, but for the cook who's looking for something different, here are two new onion recipes calculated to make her dinner more interesting in this off-season for fresh vegetables:

Baked Stuffed Onions—Six large onions; three-quarter cup soft bread crumbs; three-quarter cup thin cream sauce; three-quarter cup chopped meat; chicken, fish or vegetable, one half cup crackers or bread crumbs; grated cheese; salt and pepper to taste.

Peel and boil onions until nearly tender. Drain, cut out a slice from the top and hollow them, leaving a three-quarter-inch shell, or if onions are very large, cut into halves and hollow them.

Chop the pulp taken from the centre and combine with bread crumbs, cream, sauce, chopped cooked meat and season. Fill cases with this mixture and top with cracker or bread crumbs. Sprinkle with grated cheese. Place in a pan with enough water to keep onions from scorching. Bake in a moderate oven, for about 40 minutes or until tender. Six servings.

HONEY GLAZED ONION SLICES

Four medium-sized onions; salt and pepper; two tablespoons water; one tablespoon honey; two teaspoons butter.

Cut onions into one-quarter inch slices and place in a large greased casserole or pan, sprinkle with salt and pepper and add water. Cover and bake in a moderate oven for 15 minutes, or until tender. Remove from oven, drizzle with honey, and dot with butter. Return to oven for 10 minutes to glaze and brown slightly, basting at least once. Six servings.

HEAT ROLLS

Rolls always taste better at a meal if they are heated before-

AS DEGAULLE CALLED FOR UNITY—General Charles de Gaulle, in a series of action speaking poses, when he addressed the people of France, replying indirectly to leftist charges that he aspires to be a dictator. The occasion for the speech in Strasbourg was in celebration of the second anniversary of the liberation of Alsace by American and French troops. In his speech, he urged unity of western Europe, to provide a balance between the world's "two enormous masses, both expanding," meaning the United States and the Soviet Union.

hand. Try rinsing an ordinary paper bag with water before putting the rolls inside. Then place in a hot oven for five or ten minutes or until thoroughly warmed. The moisture from the bag will prevent the heat from drying out the rolls and they will come out as if newly baked.

Aboard Grounded Atlantic Liner

Most Rev. Anthony Jordan, Roman Catholic Bishop of Prince Rupert, was a passenger aboard the liner Queen Elizabeth when she went aground outside Southampton, England recently. Bishop Jordan is on his way to visit the Vatican, after which he will visit England and Ireland.

Building Neglect Results in Fine

R. C. Mutch was fined $25 with an option of 14 days in jail by Magistrate W. D. Vance Tuesday when he was convicted under the city's sanitary bylaws of failure to keep his premises, known as the York Hotel, up to the standard of sanitation prescribed in the code. The prosecution resulted from an inspection of the Third Avenue building by Medical Health Officer Dr. R. M. Lane and the city police.

CAR AND TRUCK IN COLLISION

An automobile driven by D. S. Negrych and the city waterworks truck driven by Carl J. Gustafson were damaged Tuesday afternoon, but no one was injured, when they collided at the intersection of Park Avenue, Second Avenue and Third Avenue. According to eyewitnesses, the vehicles collided as the city truck turned on to Second Avenue from Third Avenue. The automobile driven by Negrych was proceeding east on Second Ave.

Pre-School Co-op Aids Tiny Pupils

REGINA, P.—A nursery school for children up to six years is the latest of Saskatchewan's 2,000-odd co-operative organizations. Last month 22 children attended.

The plan, which took four months to crystallize, was first suggested during discussions over tea cups, when mothers of Regina's Lakeview district voiced the need of a nursery school for their pre-school age children.

A room in the district public school was donated by the school board. All other organization and equipment was provided by the co-operators, who hired one teacher and were offered services of two volunteer teachers.

The system of financing and share loans which include a $3 registration fee and a $5 fee per child per term, was evolved during a series of weekly meetings of the mothers.

One family loaned a piano and others built and painted pint-sized chairs and tables. Toys were repaired and donated.

LONDON, P.—Fires in woodlands belonging to the British Forestry Commission last year caused damage estimated at £26,000 ($104,000) and destroyed 1,100 acres.
