TERRACE IS ORGANIZING ITS CIVIC CENTRE; MANY SHOWING INTEREST

A meeting of unusual interest took place on Tuesday when representatives of practically every organization and club in Terrace gathered to get started on plans for managing the newly acquired Army Drill Hall and which is to be Terrace's Civic Centre.

The following officers were chosen:

President—A. Yoxall.

Vice-President—L. Johnstone.

Secretary — Mrs. Gordon Haugland.

Treasurer—Harold Smith.

It was decided to call the recently acquired army drill hall the Terrace Civic Centre. As a mark of appreciation a bronze plaque, having on it "Land donated by George Little," will be placed on the side of the building.

The secretary was instructed to receive applications from various organizations wishing to carry on activities in the hall.

MANY ORGANIZATIONS ARE REPRESENTED

Delegates to the Civic Centre are:

Teachers' Association—Mrs. S. Campbell.

Orange Lodge—Frank Green.

Kinsmen's Club — L. Johnstone, J. Maxsted.

Remo Village—O. Lindstrom, W. Lindstrom.

P.C.M.R. — Herb Larson, F. Kirby.

Members-at-Large — G. McAdams, A. Yoxall, W. Osborne Jr., D. K. Kerr.

It was decided to get in touch with Prince Rupert's Civic Centre forthwith and from them acquire some useful ideas as to how to begin and how to keep the centre running to the advantage of the local community.

Considerable discussion centred upon the question whether to permit some one organization to take charge of the centre and run it. There has been some talk outside that the Kinsmen Club would be a suitable body for this work. Eventually a motion was recorded that the Civic Centre Association will consider offers from some club or organization, which motion carried with a fair majority.

Next meeting will be held on March 18 when a constitution and by-laws will fill the agenda.

CAESAR AND CLEOPATRA

George Bernard Shaw's Famous Historical Picture Presented in Color on Screen

Vivien Leigh and Claude Rains co-star in a gorgeous historical romance as the Technicolor version of George Bernard Shaw's famous comedy, "Caesar and Cleopatra," comes to the screen of the Capitol Theatre here this Friday and Saturday. It has been rated as one of the most charming and delightful of historical satires. The subtle simplicity of Shaw's script is developed into one of the screen's most colorful and lavish productions.

Julius Caesar is portrayed by Rains as a suave, humorous and considerate mediator of the tangled affairs of a divided Egypt. Miss Leigh plays not a voluptuous Cleopatra but rather an enchanting scion of the Pharoahs who, with Caesar's help, achieves the throne and learns the fundamental principles of true majesty.

Stewart Granger, now recognized as England's top leading man, plays the handsome Roman merchant who escorts Cleopatra, cleverly wrapped in one of his rugs, to Caesar. Robson is the savage maid of the storied queen.
