Published at Canada's Most Strategic Pacific Port-"Prince Rupert, the Key to the Great Northwest" PRICE FIVE CENTS PRINCE RUPERT, B.C., MONDAY, MARCH 17, 1947 VOL. XXXVI, No. 64.

TAXI DAY AND NIGHT ST Bill and Ken Nesbitt

urricane Adds to Misery of Flooded Britain

y-Eight Mile Gaie Torrential Rain In tge from Elements

teen Persons Are Killed and lions of Dollars Damage Done

ON (CP)—A swirling hurricane that killed and did millions of dollars worth of propuction blew itself out today over flooded bound Britain. The Air Ministry forecast eather today but with considerable rains houses and churn-of families were age to 74 houses, 61 stores and their homes across two churches. None of London southern part of itself was under water, but many cores of highways nearby villages were inundated,

OR LOBBY A-A lobby of two aborites buttonabers of the Legismorning. They the Canadian Labor and C.I.O. o the secret strike was expressed.

WEATHER

Synopsis

British Columbia mum tonight-Estavan 40, Maxiadually today an in- mum Tuesday 50. loudiness is expected and vicinity - Clear Lytton 30. Tuesday. Wind light. nge in temperature tonight 44, maximum ceping in from the way lines were out of service; mountainous snowdrifts still es, de-roofed build- paralyzed transportation in Scores of persons were injured in more than half by falling walls and trees. Birmingham police reported damsome branch rail- and some were reported isolated.

Forecast

FLOOD IN CALGARY

CALGARY - A sudden thaw flooded. In a nearby district houses had to be deserted by the rise of streams still filled with ice.

Little

intermittent light rain in northern section, cloudy in southern Wind light. general wind circu- change in temperature. Mini-

Prince Rupert, Queen Charestern portion of the cottes and North Coast-Northmorrow. Daytime ern section cloudy today, overes are expected to cast tonight and Tuesday. Inbove average, drop- termittent rain late tonight and told of the preliminaries leading *light. Little change in tempera- British Columbia enjoying full the company, Mr. Blanche, who need not be if there was an acture. Temperatures tonight and transportation facilities on tidal has discussed this matter with tive acceptance of the real spirr and vicinity Low- Tuesday-Minimum Port Hardy water and transCanada rail and your Forestry Department on itual and moral values.

n morning, becoming sett 47. Prince Rupert 47. Iternoon. Wind light. Okanagan, Lillooet, South The subject of the new pulp erica has announced its inten- Flock." Miss Gwen McRae was nge in temperature. Thompson — Clear today and mill is of such vital interest here tion to build a plant in the North organist. res tonight and Tues- Tuesday. Wind light, little that Mr. Kenney's announce- West Coastal area of British Col- LIST OF NAMES nums Vancouver air- change in temperature. Tem- ment is given in full as follows: umbia. The plant will produce ON HONOR ROLL botsford 37, Nanaimo peratures tonight and Tuesday— "The outlook for the future highly purified cellulose for The following are the names nums Vancouver air- Minimum Penticton 30, Kam- for forest products is exception- chemical purposes and will have on the church honor roll: botsford 65, Nanaimo loops 39, Lytton 32, Maximums ally bright. Since last October, a capacity of from 200 to 400

Local Tides

	Tuesday,	March	18,	194	7
of Vancouver				17.5
today, becoming		23:55		17.2	fe
thern section to-		4:56		10.1	fe
y overcast with	TO A PARTICULAR TO THE PROPERTY AND A CONTROL AND AN	17:30		5.5	fe

TODAY'S STOCKS:

Vancouver	1	Beattie	.86
	11.75	Bevcourt	1.11
1	.071/2	Bobjo	.24
	.12	Buffalo Canadian	.23
Gold	2.65	Consolidated Smelters	84.00
	.281/2	Conwest	1.05
inksne	.09	Donalda	1.20
Mascot	1.09	Eldona	.60
	.041/2	Elder	1.13
eille	2.95	Giant Yellowknife
	3,90	God's Lake	1.48
Border	.05	Hardrock	.50
Gold	.75	Harricana	.15
A CONTRACTOR AND AND A CONTRACTOR AND A	.48	Heva Gold
McDonald	1.59	Hosco
	11	Jacknife
Gold	24	Joliet Quebec	.64
rieek	1.20	Lake Rowan	.25
pringe (ask)	CS	Lapsaka
aver	.021/2	Little Long Lac	2.05
	36	Lynx	96
	05	Madsen Red Lake
Eastern (ask)	g ₅	McKenzie Red Lake	72
amalgamated	00	MacLeod Cockshutt	2.05
aney	10	Moneta	56
Zeballos	021/4	Negus	. 1.95
		Noranda	48.50
	11	Osisko Lake	1.33
	.27	Pickle Crow	2.9
ls	2.00	Regcourt	68
	2.25	San Antonio	3.8
Ton	. 3.10	Senator Rouyn	4
Toronto		Sherritt Gordon	. 4.2
ue	28	Steep Rock	2.1

Sturgeon River

Burke, 82, Bridgeport, Ohio, had uttered in 36 years were miracle." A former railroad engineer, Burke suffered from paralysis of the vocal cords as the result of piosonous fumes inhaled when his engine was stalled in a tunnel. Specialists callhis case "hopeless." Shown here with his daughter-in-law, Burke said that "something told me to speak." He tried, and found his voice restored. He'll use it in a campaign for a seat on the city council.

has done thousands of dollars damage here. Hundreds of basements in the city were Port Edward Best Pulp Mill Site on Continent

Announcement of Minister of Lands in Legislature Last Week Given in Full

In enthusiastically announcing in the Legislature ing as the real aim of life, delast week successful culmination of negotiations for ploring the tendency to secularthe establishment by Celanese Corporation of Am- without recognition of these erica of a $15,000,000 cellulose pulp plant nearby to higher values, there could be no Prince Rupert at Port Edward, Hon. E. T. Kenney, peace. He quoted the words of minister of lands and forests and M.L.A. for Skeena, born in war and expires in alley, Georgia Straits 38, Massett 40, Prince Rupert 40. highways, estimated by one en- several occasions. I quote his Rev. A. F. MacSween conductay and tonight. Tues- Maximums Port Hardy 50, Mas- gineer as being the best pulp mill release as follows:

-Pentieton 53, Kamloops 60, we have been negotiating with tons per day. one of the largest operators in "The site of the plant will the United States producing cel- be Watson Island, about 8 miles ner, John Bremner Jr., William lulose products as a result of which there has been organized which Island has docking fa- M. Brown Sr., Wm. M. Brown EQUIPMENT IS the Port Edward Cellulose Co. cilities for ocean going ships. Jr., G. Calderwood, H. Calderward Development Co. Ltd. The erected by the U.S. government latter company was organized as during the war to service the latter company was organized as a during the war to service the Cromp, George Currie, James Construction Currie, Arthur Davey, John W. Construction et a pilot company, to acquire U.S. Army base at Port Edward, Currie, Arthur Davey, John W. rights and property for the par- in the immediate vicinity. The Davey, D. Eastman, J. Eastwood, ord of achievement from that date to the present.

HUGE ASSETS OF BIG COMPANY

"It has a capital structure of PERPETUAL TIMBER $179,000,000 with assets accord- SUPPLY ARRANGED approximately $85,000,000. tics and chemicals. It is, I believe, the highest grade of pulp made from wood. "The number of their employ- FLOODS IN ees has been expanded from 12,-000 in 1939 to approximately 21,-000 in 1946. They have manufacturing plants in eight of the states of the Union as well as in Mexico. The plant that they propose to construct. "Perhaps at this time, I can Thousands tried to salvage and W. Ralph Morin. do no better than read you a furniture at flooded Bedford Mr. Maclean was the preacher ice, an informal reception was Prince Rupert people to whom Brooksbank spells respect and press release which concurrent- where officials said the "river again last night when his sub- held in the Church Hall so that Watson Island had previously honor and is indeed a credit ly with this announcement, is is out of control—we cannot do ject was "Our Charuch." He the congregation might meet been only a shadowy place near to the B. C. police departbeing made in New York today. anything now."

near normal March Tuesday. Southern section clear up to the decision to build what The press release has been displayed in war culminated in today. Overcast Tuesday. Winds will be "the only pulp mill in sent to me by the President of the weakness of peace but this site on the American continent." "'Celanese Corporation of Am- choir sang "He Shall Feed His ent company which is the Cela- site is serviced by the Cana- Donald R. Eby, John M. Eby, The parent company started Provincial Highway and has am- Robert K. Elkins, Wm. P. El- Celanese Corporation of Amare available in nearby Prince Rupert.

(Continued on Page 4)

Railway Lines Collapse and Roads Deep Under Water

LONDON (P-As snow melted, to build in B.C. is estimated to rivers burst their banks, railder icy water.

Honor Church TABLE SYRUP War Heroes

With token of especial reverence to the seven men who made supreme sacrifice, First Presbyterian Church paid tribite to the war heroes of its con gregation at morning service yesterday when the moderator the General Assembly, Rt. Rev. W. G. Maclean of Winnipeg, unveiled, with solemn and scroll, containing 85 names which will occupy a prominen! place in the church for perpet-

Before a congregation which crowded the church and includd the mothers of four of the withdrew a large Union Jack from the scroll and made brief but appropriate remarks of dedication. There was a solemn pericd of silence in memory of the fallen after which "The Last Post" echoed from the lips of Bugler William Rance from another part of the church. The National Anthem concluded the dedication ceremony after which J. A. Teng sang "in Flanders

Veterans of two world wars, assembled by the Canadian Legion under president V. G. Houston and with Harry Calderwood and E. Woodward as flagbearers, attended in a body, march ing to and from the church.

"Peace and War" was the sermon subject of Mr. Maclean who rade a stirring plea for a recognition of values sacred and lastpeace." Too often the strength

ed the service and the junior

John Armstrong, Alex B. Baillie, Beatrice Berner, John Breen, Anna M. Bremner, James Brem-

business in the United States ple log storage. Water and power kins, James Feasby, Clarence erica will depend entirely on in 1924 and has a very fine rec- supplies are also available in the Finley, Gordon Fraser, Rupert when rock working equipment Matthew Harris, H. R. Hibbard, E. R. Barr, who is to be in Mike Hudema, William Hunter, charge of the operation in its Harold Ivarson, Lloyd Keays, initial phases. Oliver J. Keays, Robert W. "We can't go ahead until we ing to their annual report of "'Arrangements have been Keays, Alan Kergin, Edith Ker- get the equipment and it's scarce 1946 of $192,000,000 within which made with the British Columbia gin, Bruce Love, Chas. E. Love, right now," he said this mornis included working capital of government whereby a large Evan Love, W. Ralph Morin, ing. "We won't be able to go tract of forest land has been Robert Moxley, William Mur- ahead until we get delivery of "From pulp cellulose which reserved for use by the Port Ed- doch, Ken McCrimmon, John C. rock drilling equipment, shovels they propose to produce at the ward Cellulose Company Limited, McCubbin, Harold MacDonald, and trucks." Port Edward mill, they manu- a subsidiary of Celanese Cor- Norman McGlashan, James T. Mr. Barr said that so far no facture yarns and fabrics for poration of America. The re- McKay, Alex McLean, David Mc- men have been hired for the synthetic textiles as well as plas- serve allotted will provide a per- Meekin, David McNab, Robert project and declined to forecast McNab, Iain A. MacRae, John D. just when hiring will start. McRae, Jos. Naylor Jr., John A. "It will be some time in the nese pulp. At present, those San Juan to Cape Cook. O'Neill, Lloyd M. Rice, David near future but I cannot defin- sidings are separated from the When the PML 8 was at Ze-Ritchie, John Ritchie. Robert itely say when. It all depends main line of the railway by blast ballos recently, the Zeballos Ritchie, Harry Robb, R. E. Rob- on when we get the equipment." barriers—huge fences of rock Miners newspaper said very erts, Anton Simundson, Bruce At the present time, surveys slag contained in frameworks of pleasant and complimentary Simundson, Minor Simundson, are being made for the con- timbers, thoughtfully put there things about Skipper Brooks-Malcolm Smith, W. D. Smith, struction of workmen's housing to protect passing rail traffic bank. "The PML's popular and James D. Smith, J. A. Teng, A. on the site but no contract has in the event of an ammunition handsome skipper is well den, Mike Hudema, Lloyd Keays Ear."

traced the history of the church the moderator.

RATION-FREE

Taken Off Today-Will Further Ease Sugar Situation

OTTAWA—Table syrups came off the Canadian ration list toy, following announcement by he Prices and Trade board las and table syrups and blended able syrups are now available with price ceilings unchanged.

There is now plenty of corn syrup although can syrup is still in short supply. Removal table syrup from ration wi make more coupons available for honey, jams and jellies and will further ease the sugar situation following the increase ration announced last week.

YOUTHFUL BANDIT

VANCOUVER-After a spectacular chase, a sixteen-yearold youth was arrested on a charge of car theft. The poand Cambie to Sixth and Birch.

DISFUGAL OF BODIES

NUERNBERG—The secret is out regarding the disposal of the bodies of Herman Goering and ten others executed leading Nazi war criminals. They were cremated October 16 in civilian cemetery and the ashes sifted into a stream at HEAVY CONFISCATIONS OTTAWA - Canada comiscated over one billion dollars in securities, goods, real estate and miscellaneous assets belonging to belligerent countries' internees and illegal op-Colin Gibsen disclosed in the nomic future. House of Commons Friday. Japanese enemy properties still in custody are valued at $1,480,230 and Japanese evacuees' properties at $1,251,953. Sales had netted $2,411,285.

LORD TYRELL DIES LONDON - Lord Tyrell, 80, first Baron of Avon and behind-the-scenes diplomat who helped build the Triple Entente of the First World War era, died of pneumonia at the week-end.

The start of work on the new nese Corporation of America. dian National Railway and the Robert L. Eby, Wm. Earl Eby, Watson Island pulp plant of the immediate vicinity and ample Fulton, James Hadden, sr., James becomes available to level the manpower and housing facilities Hadden Jr., Wm. A. Hadden, face of the island, according to the grey fleets that skulked

D. Vance, John A. Walker, James | yet been let, he said.

The dead are William M. and outlined its aims. The sen- wartime operations against prycost approximately $15,000,000 way lines have collapsed and Brown sr., William M. Brown jr., ior choir under leadership of J. ing eyes. and will require about two years roads lay three or four feet un- Clarence Finley, William A. Had- A. Teng, sang "Incline Thine

Watson Island Slumbers on Verge Of Thriving Industrial Activity

(By J. K. McLEOD)

Watson Island, rocky railroad stepping stone from the mainland at Port Edward to Kaien Island and Prince Rupert, lay dozing in near-primeval emptiness Sunday and, of all its regular occupants, only one was Under controls since 1943, corn aware that its year-long slumber would shortly be riven by the blasting of its rocky face and the sounds > pant was the watchman who importance prior to last week's stood desultory guard at the announcement by the Celanese end of its main causeway as Corporation of America. more than a score of Prince Ru- Now, however, despite its emppert cars bearing sightseers' tiness and the undisciplined passed his drab-painted shack structure of its rock face they in a flurry of interest at what recognized it as most economithe island contained.

The other occupants were the Rupert district. hordes of seagulls that have inwith little interruption since V-J MORE SOCIAL habited the vast, horseshoe dock Day signalled a halt to the flow of ammunition to the western Pacific a year and a half ago.

The parade of vistors Sunnay disturbed the seagulls who rose and wheeled over the island where isolated ammunition storage chambers, blasted from the lice pursuit was from Eighth rock, will soon be part of levelled surface on which will rise a $15,000,000 celanese pulp > island, now barriered with heavy timbers against aimless traffic, soon will bustle with the movement of heavy trucks and the air will be shattered with the roar of dynamite blasts.

PICTURES OF NOW AND THEN

All this was in the minds of Sunday's signiseers as they crossed the 500-foot causeway from Port Edward and their prices Board ubiquitous cameras recorded the Prices Board present deserted quietness of the island which is to be liter-ally one of the main building Coses Tere erations during the Second ally one of the main building World War, Secretary of State | blocks of Prince Rupert's eco-

What the visitors saw on Watson Island was a terrain of partially excavated rock, crisscrossed with crushed rock roads, office of the Wartime Prices and but what their minds were aware | Trade Board at Prince Rupert of was the great, sustained in- will be closed. This is in line dustrial enterprise that will rise with the policy of economy on the site employing men and adopted by the board. It has forest wealth to enrich the com- completed a number of consoli-

They saw the U-shaped dock, ada. its past but in the future with office by correspondence. its promise that that dock again | Closing of the Wartime Prices would be the haven of loading and Trade Board office here inships, this time filling their volves the retirement of P. H. holds with the peaceful products Linzey, who has been local repof central British Columbia, des- resentative of the board and tined for processing and use rentals appraiser for five years, throughout the hemisphere.

basin, sheltered on the sea-Island and, if their minds cal rations officer, assisted by ward side by rough, Ridley populated it with visions of Mrs. J. A. Teng. into it under the shadow of | Honor Spelt By wartime security for their grim cargoes, these visions were quickly replaced by the dreams of normal sea commerce which would add to the living wealth of the country.

They saw the railroad sidings, provincial police boat P.M.L. 8 rusting after more than a year on the west coast of Vancouof disuse, but which some day ver Island. During the war he will shine again under the fric- had served in the Royal Canation of car wheels bringing in dian Navy. construction materials, and later logs to be converted into cela- coastline once a month from explosion on the dock-and in- known on the west coast and cidentally serving to protect the especially in Zeballos. Skipper fully recorded in the memories loggers all along the patrol Following the evening serv- or on the photographic films of line. The mere name of

That sole, enlightened occu- in war time, but of undefinable cally vital place in the Prince

LEGI3LA HUN

Recommendations Made Under Goldenberg Report Are Being Implemented

VICTORIA (P) - Four bills to mplement recommendations contained in the Goldenberg report were introduced in the Legislature by Hon. George The network of roads on the Pearson, minister of health, covering amendments to the Protection of Children, Provincial Home, Tuberculosis Institutions and Infirmaries Acts. The majority of the Department of Education estimates were passed with little debate and the remainder of the estimates will be discussed next

Office of P. H. Linzey to Be Discomunued After End of Month

Effective March 31 the local dations in other parts of Canwith its 1,200 feet of loading The regional office of the frontage where during the war, board at Vancouver will look four deep sea ships at a time after work hitherto handled at lined up stem-to-stern to re- Prince Rupert. Any complaints ceive wartime cargoes. Yet their or requests for information will interest in the dock was not in be handled from the Vancouver and staff of three. Mr. Linzey They saw its deep harbor | will now go into the real estate and insurance business.

H. F. Glassey continues as lo-

Brooksbank Name

Skipper Fred Brooksbank, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Brooksbank of Prince Rupert, is back in command of the

The PML 8 patrols the island

Brooksbank has made the acquaintance of business peo-All these things were faith- ple, miners, fishermen and