

Veteran Lost All In Kennel Fire

VANCOUVER — Omar La Chappelle, 45-year-old veteran pensioner, lost all his savings when fire destroyed the Whispering Pine Kennels at North Vancouver on Monday. One hundred and eighteen dogs—all pedigreed and including cocker spaniels, pomeranians, pekinese and wire-haired terriers—were burned to death. They were valued at $3000. Only one dog was saved.

WIND CAUSES HOUSE FIRE

Tuesday's gale was responsible for a fire in the residence of J. Seymour, 203 Ninth Avenue East, at 2:15 p.m. when the force of wind blew a stovepipe stopper out of the chimney on the second floor of the building. A nearby wardrobe took fire and the flames spread to the wooden ceiling and walls before they were put out. Mrs. Seymour passed through the flaming stair landing to rescue her baby from a bedroom, then fought the flames with buckets of water until the arrival of city firemen.

No "Prisoners' Song" for the Cat or Pearson

Cages Unnecessary for Wrestlers Appearing Here This Week—Dangerous Only To Referees

Rumors that Jack "The Cat" McLaughlin and his opponent-in-arms, Gil Pearson, 185-pound wrestling terror, are being shipped north in separate cages for their bout here on Friday are more than slightly exaggerated, according to Civic Centre manager Don Forward, who doubts that the professions require such strong arm solicitude.

"Nobody in Vancouver would accept the dangerous job of putting them in cages," said Mr. Forward. "Besides, they react wonderfully to kindness. Undoubtedly, both will be led meekly aboard the Camosun tonight by their Vancouver friends."

The ring in the Civic Centre gym, Mr. Forward says, will be fortified extra stoutly in deference to "The Cat," who recently went berserk in a feature bout with Micky Kohibus in the Seamen's Club in Vancouver. Somewhat upset by the tactics of Mr. Kohibus, The Cat proceeded to kazo the referee and rip one of the ring posts from its moorings. Mr. Kohibus remained unharmed.

What protection is being promoted for George Howe and Constable Van Meer, who will referee Friday night's fight, has not been disclosed. The authority of the law may be enough to protect Van Meer.

Despite the fact that neither fighter has been fed an exclusive diet of raw meat, nor required to be domiciled in an iron-barred cage, a first-rate fight of professional calibre, with all its implications, is in the offing. Mr. Forward predicts. The bout is scheduled for six 10-minute rounds, two falls out of three.

As a preliminary, there will be two boxing bouts, one of which should gain some hold on the popular imagination. Alex Gomez, whose budding talents have been a notable feature in the local fight business, will meet Bobby Jones, who put on an outstanding performance in the last Canadian Legion fight card in December. Gomez weighs 146 pounds and Jones, 146.

Benny Windie, the world's welterweight champion of Prince Rupert, will referee the bout. The opener probably will be an encounter between Johnny Leighton, 90 pounds, and Neil Forman, 95 pounds.

Art Murray will announce the fights.

KETCHIKAN WINS

Alaskan All-Stars Take Easy Basketball Victory and Win Series By Two Games to One

Swamping the local all-stars 71 to 45, the visiting Ketchikan basketball squad took the final game last night to win the international hoop series two games to one. It was the Alaskans' game all the way with Prince Rupert trailing far behind.

After watching the good showing the locals made Monday night it did not seem to make sense the way they played last night. Mostly it was bad luck on their shots but they also lacked the fight they had shown in the second match.

The game was rough with a total of 45 fouls being handed out by Referee Johnny Comandina and Umpire Jack Lindsay. Ketchikan drew 25 of them while Rupert was not far behind with 21. Three players were sent to the showers with five personal—Johnny Mills and Joe Bolduc of Ketchikan and Sev Dominato of Prince Rupert.

Although Mills was banished half-way through the third quarter he still managed to take top scoring honors, netting 25 counters. Ted Arney of the local stars took second place billing with 16 points, followed by Phillips of the Alaskans with 14.

Ketchikan led 20 to 10 at the end of the first frame and, by the time the half-time breather had come around, had increased this to 40 to 26. With the threat of Mills being sent off the floor in the third period the fans expected to see Prince Rupert start whittling the margin down but the very opposite held true. The northern squad seemed to take offense that their star was banished and, as the third quarter came to a close, had widened the gap to 55 to 35.

The fourth quarter was rough Rupert was battling desperately to narrow the visitors' lead and the Alaskans were fighting just as hard to increase it. And increase it they did! Rupert was outscored 16 to 10 in this last frame.

Although the score ended up so lopsided, the local champions never been given some credit. They never lacked courage. Luck was against them as was a team that just could not miss. Doc Montgomery's boys made a fight and had the constant support of the 500 or 600 fans.

Ketchikan—Ludwigen 11 (4), R. Farstad 9 (4), L. Farstad 9 (4), Mills 25 (5), Phillips 14 (3), Erickson 1, Bolduc 3 (5). Total—71.

Prince Rupert—Davis 9 (3), T. Arney 16 (3), R. Holkestad 7 (4), Dominato 5, Houston 7 (2), M. Holkestad 3 (1), Haugan 1, Beynon 3 (1), D. Arney 1, Vuckovich, Murray. Total. 45.

CLOTHIERS WIN OVER VETERANS

Watts and Nickerson junior squad came into their own when they downed the Canadian Legion quintet 44 to 29. This was a memorable event for the Clothiers, marking as it did their first win of the current season. After dropping so many they were almost delirious last night when the final whistle sounded. They played as a five man team and, right from the start, Legion must have known they were in for trouble. Sparking his team was Ray Spring with 14 points, but he was outscored by Wally Wong of Legion who netted 15.

However, Ray had a team that supported whereas Wally was the only bright light on the losers' squad. With Webster and Scharf holding down the defensive end very effectively, the forward line of Ratchford and Kelly got 10 points apiece. Leading 8 to 5 at the end of the first quarter the Clothiers went on to increase the gap to 18 by 11 by the first half mark. Then, while only one man scored for the Legion in the third quarter, Watts and Nickerson moved into the last period still out in front 26-19. The last period broke the back of the Legion when they were outscored 18-10.
