

THE STORY IN A NUT-SHELL!

COOK ELECTRICALLY AND ENJOY THE DIFFERENCE

Need we say more? Except of course that you'll have more time for other work or for leisure. With electric cooking constant pot-watching and testing are eliminated. Thermostatic control guarantees unvarying heat upon which you can depend for all your cooking. Less water need be used to cook vegetables and other foods, thus retaining more of those precious vitamins usually lost in cooking. Next time you're shopping, examine the new electric models now on display.

Where Your Dimes are Little Dollars

Charles B. Howe, who last week was appointed Prince Rupert's city engineer, is expected to arrive in the city this afternoon from Vancouver on the Princess Adelaide.

WE BEG TO ANNOUNCE that we have disposed of our business to Orme G. Stuart as of the date July 1st, 1947.

We wish to thank our customers for the friendship and business that they have given us for so many years. Prince Rupert people have been very kind to us in every way and we appreciate it very much more than words can express.

We feel sure that the new owner will merit your patronage and good will.

Yours Sincerely,
Ormes Limited
