IS MARRIED AT ST. CATHERINES

Miss Margaret Morin of Prince Rupert is Beautiful Bride

A quiet but beautiful ceremony was solemnized in the vestry of Knox Presbyterian Church, St. Catharines, Ontario, a week ago Friday afternoon, when Margaret Marie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Morin, Prince Rupert, became the bride of John Paul, son of Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Gayman, Vineland, Ontario. The charming bride wore an aqua blue jersey suit dress with white off-the-face hat and white accessories. She carried pink roses and sweet peas, and wore pearl and diamond earrings, the gift of the groom.
As matron of honor, Mrs. W. A.

Ham Gayman.
For going away, the bride wore a black and white jersey dress with white accessories, black coat, and corsage of pink roses.
The couple left on a short trip to the United States, and upon their return, will reside in St.
Catharines, Ontario.
The bride was formerly a member of the staff of the Canadian National Railways here.
Robert McMynn of the staff of the Nanaimo Biological Station of the Fisheries Research Board of Canada arrived at the weekend at Masset, Queen Charlotte Islands, to conduct a crab survey.
Miss Irene Peatt and Miss Barbara Beale of the local school teaching staff, after spending a few days at Ketchikan, returned to the city on the Camosun at the end of the week.

Established by the Presbyterian Church in Canada at strategic points across the Dominion and the program includes study periods and various recreational activities.
"This is an advance party," stated Mr. MacSween, "these girls will have a wonderful holiday and at the same time will come home better equipped to give leadership in the church and in future camps. We hope in time to have a camp nearer home. We would like to include a larger party but accommodation at the camp is already taxed and the cost of the undertaking quite considerable. Nevertheless, this is a good start." D. McCorkindale is planning on a trip to Alberta, this being the time of the year when the annual stampede is staged at Calgary and which draws visitors from all over the west.

where a number of friends were present at the graveside. The church was filled to capacity.
Mrs. C. J. Norrington played suitable numbers during the period of waiting and also during the service. Hymns were "Peace Perfect Peace" and
"Jesus Lover of My Soul." Many floral tributes testified to the high esteem in which the deceased was held by many friends.

Donald, T. E. Brooks, S. Kirkaldy, G. Doyer, R. Cory and
