CJ HIGHWAY CONFERENCE IS SET FOR SECOND OF JUNE

June 2 was set by the Prince Rupert Automobile Association at a general meeting last night as the date for a district highway conference to which representatives of all communities along the line of the northern transprovincial highway will be invited to thresh out highway problems, decide on representations that should be made for improvements and promote the interests of road users of the district generally. The date was

Would Protest Discrimination

Mr. Pattullo Has No Bitterness Against C.C.F.—District Entitled to Fair Deal

"If there should be any move to discriminate against this part of the province because it is on the wrong side of the fence politically you could count on me to be the first to raise my voice in protest and fight against such tendency," says T. D. Pattullo, former Premier of British Columbia and long time Member of the Legislature for Prince Rupert, who is revisiting the city. Mr. Pattullo himself was one of the victims of the C.C.F. sweep in the last provincial election but he has no hard feelings about it. Although now out of public life and in more or less retirement, he is still deeply interested in this city and district and is enthusiastically meeting his old friends.

Mr. Pattullo, who in his own day as minister of lands pioneered in efforts to obtain large scale industry to interest itself in the timber resources of this part of the country, expresses his satisfaction over the entry of the Celanese Corporation of America into the area with its big $15,000,000 mill at Port Edward and believes that it will not be the only large plant of its kind to locate here or in the central interior.

The former Prime Minister of the province, who is in fine form in spite of the passing of the years, will be here until Saturday night when he will return to Victoria on the Camosun.

Motor transport operators of Prince Rupert were organized at a meeting Wednesday evening by G. L. Buckman, secretary-manager of the Automotive Transport Association of B.C. J. S. (Jack) Lindsay was elected president and Percy R. Cameron, secretary of the Prince Rupert Motor Transport Association.

The new association announces that it stands for promotion of a proper and comprehensive motor transport service and good operating standards.

Discussion of the recent application of the Canadian National Transportation Ltd. for license to operate over the highway between Prince Rupert and Burns Lake resulted in a resolution as follows:

SCORES GOVT TAX POLICY

OTTAWA (CP)—Hon. Earl Rowe (PC-Dufferin-Simcoe), charged the government with "Inefficiency and reckless extravagance" in Commons Wednesday. He said that the current rate of taxation is 20.49 per cent of the national income, compared with a ratio of 8.55 per cent in 1938.

"Whereas the aforesaid local business men feel that they are unable to compete against the weight of unlimited capital as represented by government ownership and further that they have prior rights for consideration as proven by their repeated attempts to obtain sanction to perform the required public transportation service and further that the granting of such rights to the Canadian National tends to establish a land transportation monopoly which is not in the public interest,

"Therefore be it Resolved,

"1. That the application of the Canadian National Transportation Ltd. should be refused.

"2. That the Chamber of Commerce of Prince Rupert, a civic body operating in the interests of Prince Rupert citizens and local business men, should protect the public interest and support local business men providing essential transportation service by opposing the aforesaid application."

A committee was appointed to request an interview with the executive of the Prince Rupert Chamber of Commerce to seek their support in opposing the Canadian National application.

The committee to meet the executive of the Chamber of Commerce was named in the persons of J. A. Lindsay, Harold Whalen, Vic Menzie, Percy Cameron and J. S. Lindsay.

WALLACE ADVOCATES RADICAL FINANCING—Henry A. In return, Wallace said, Russia should be required to forego her heavy repatriation demands on Germany and to become a member of the international bank. Wallace is shown shaking hands with M. Pierre Cot, cabinet member, who is sponsoring the former vice-president's visit to Paris.

Latest Clues in Hunt For Transport End Up As Proving Worthless

NATIVES DELAY ACCEPTANCE OF SALMON PRICES

KITWANGA—A schedule of salmon prices for the 1947 season submitted by the United Fishermen and Allied Workers Union and the Native Brotherhood of B.C. was turned down tentatively by local fishermen pending the establishment of prices for fishing gear by the cannery operators.

President Harold Sinclair of the local Native Brotherhood branch advised that, pending settlement of gear and equipment cost between fishermen and the cannery companies, approval of the proposed schedule be withheld.

He told the meeting that last year, after accepting a ½ cent per pound increase, the fishermen found that the companies had given an "unfair" boost to equipment rental charges, net repairs and mechanical charges.

This boost resulted in an increased cost to fishermen of about $250, more than offsetting any hope of gain through the increase in fish prices. The schedule of fishing equipment costs was posted two weeks after the fishing season began, he said.

"Most of us went in the hole," he declared. "I don't think we should do the same thing this year."

At this advice the following telegram was sent to William Rigby, business agent for the U.F.A.W.U., and to Ed Nahane, district vice-president of the Native Brotherhood: "Unable to sign fish proposal received because no statement of fishing equipment rental charges men-
