Whifflets

From The Waterfront
The question of salmon prices is again on the cards this year. A one cent increase in said to have been offered by the B.C. Packers but this does not suit Skeena gillnet men who have tied up the boats, saying there will be nothing doing unless the 16 1/2 cent per pound for spring salmon is restored to 21 cents which prevailed last season. Negotiations are understood to be continuing.

The fisheries patrol vessel Kitimat, Captain C. W. Earnshaw, and a halibut craft, the Wales No. 10, Capt. R. Lanten, while beset by heavy weather off the Queen Charlotte Islands, became involved in difficulties when one was trying to help the other. It became necessary to tow both boats to Vancouver.
