

TACOMA PARTY ON VISIT HERE

Prominent Business Man From Puget Sound City Finds Prince Rupert Interesting

"Just out for a good time and we are certainly having it," agreed 44 members of a Tacoma Chamber of Commerce round trip excursion party who were in Prince Rupert last evening aboard the steamer Princess Adelaide. Although no official notification had been received, representatives of the Prince Rupert Chamber of Commerce were on hand to greet them as they arrived and extend courtesies and such assistance as might be desired. Soon the members of the party, all men, were circulating about the city, viewing various points of interest. The fish cold storage plants attracted their particular attention. They discovered a local sporting goods store, well-equipped with fishing tackle and made a virtual raid on the stock.

The party, including many of Tacoma's prominent businessmen, consisted among others of the following:

- Thad Stevenson, manager Tacoma Chamber of Commerce.
- John Muller and Ray Ridge, automobile distributors.
- Dr. Robert Beach, superintendent, North Pacific Hospital.
- G. R. Kirk, "Christmas Tree King."
- Fred Metzger, attorney.
- Dr. Harold Christopherson, prominent dentist and Tacoma parks commissioner.
- Al Whitman, vice-president, Puget Sound National Bank.
- Robert Gordon, assistant trust officer, Puget Sound National Bank.
- Ed. Cooper, public relations,

Bank of California. Sparks Washburn, National Bank of Washington.

$20,000 SERVICE STATION-GARAGE

Intention of establishing a $20,000 service station, garage and automobile machine shop adjoining his present business premises and Postal Station B at Hays Creek was announced today by Carl Poulosch. The site is immediately to the rear of the Postal Station on the side hill alongside the road to the dry dock. Lumber to be used will be from the dry dock commissary building which Mr. Poulosch recently purchased. Material and equipment for the automotive service plant is already on order.

BODY OF HAROLD SHOCKLEY FOUND

Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Shockley of Vancouver, who will be remembered by old timers in Prince Rupert, have been advised by the Missing Research Service Bureau that it has located the body of their son, Ft. Lt. Harold G. Shockley, whose plane was shot down over France in 1943. Lieut. Shockley is buried with his crew in Malmaison Cemetery, France.
