himself to leave no stone unturned with a view to having his department give financial support to the institution.

Mrs. Chambers spoke appreciatively of the interest and cooperation she had found among the people of Prince Rupert. It would be her pleasure and duty to work for the welfare of the native people who would come under her care. There was need for further items of equipment for the hostel, she said.

Others taking part in the opening proceedings were Mrs. F. E. Anfield, who sang the solo "Bless This House" with Peter Lien presiding at the organ; Adjutant P. L. Gorrie, who read the Scripture lesson; Rev. A. F MacSween, who offered the prayer of dedication; Rev. F. Antrobus who said the closing prayer, and Clifton E. Gillingham, recently returned overseas War Services officer, who presided at the organ for the singing of the hymn "Thy Presence and The Glory, Lord," and the benediction.

There was a letter from Wilam Beynon of the Native Brotherhood of British Columbia who expressed regret at inabil ty to be present and extended best wishes for success of the
