ARNE DAVIDSON LAID AT REST

Pioneers of Alice Arm Attended Final Rites Yesterday Afternoon

Old timers of Alice Arm formed a large proportion of those who gathered at the Grenville Court Chapel of the B.C. Undertakers yesterday afternoon for the funeral service of the late Arne Davidson, pioneer prospector and mine owner of the up-coast camp. Mr. Davidson had passed away last week in the Prince Rupert General Hos-

Rev. A. O. Aasen, pastor of St Paul's Lutheran Church, officiated at the last rites and Mrs. C. Gilker presided at the organ for the accompaniment of the hymn "Abide With Me." Interment followed in Fairview Cemetery.

Pallbeaters were Ed Peterson, David McKenzie, Norman McLeod, H. F. Kergin, Barney Turbitt and Stephen Dumas.

HEARING AID CENTRE HERE

Local Firm Brings First Service to Hard of Hearing of Prince Rupert

There is good news today for Prince Rupert people who are hard of hearing. No longer will of the hearing aid expert. The local firm of Rupert Radio and Electric has just opened the first hearing aid centre for the convenience and service of the people of Prince Rupert and district, facilities being provided for personal "in the home" fittings as well as repairing of hearing aids. The local concern announces that it is carrying in stock nodels of the famous Telex oneciece hearing aid as well as acressories for hearing aids including the common types of patteries.

Keeping in step with the latdevelopments in the field of ectronics, Rupert Radio and lectric and its expert staff is ell qualified for the fitting and emonstration of this equip-
