EXCITING FILM IS SHOWING HERE

"Cornered," Starring Dick Powell in Highly Dramatic Role, at Capitol Theatre

Mystery, adventure and excitement feature "Cornered," fast-paced melodrama which is being presented at the Capitol Theatre here tomorrow at midnight and on Monday.
Dick Powell, one-time singing star but now establishing himself firmly as a grim dramatist, has the role of a Canadian airman who sets out to avenge the murder of his young French bride who was slain by an elusive assassin. Determined to make the man pay for his crime, the flier trails his prey through France and Switzerland to far-off Buenos Aires and becomes involved in a net of intrigue with stirring action and exciting results until final triumph is achieved. Involvement with a sinister group of conspirators in Argentina provides some of the thrills.

Walter Slezak heads the featured cast while Micheline Cheirel, noted French stage and screen actress, making her first American screen appearance. Nina Vale, Morris Carnovsky, Edward Barrier, Steven Geray, Jack Karue, Luther Adler and Gregory Gay have other principal roles.

Following a dinner proffered in honor of prospective candidates for membership in the Legion of the Moose and served at the Three Sisters Cafe on Thursday, members and others present proceeded to the Moose Temple where the Legion met in regular session. On completion of business, the initiation ceremony, under direction of P. J. Bacon, was performed installing 14 Legionnaires.

LETTERBOX

MRS. RICHARDSON REPLIES
Editor,
Daily News—

Regarding the letter under the heading "Critical of Rupert" and over the name or signature of C. Grieves of Vancouver and which appeared in your paper on Thursday, March 13, I would like to tell C. Grieves that Leonard Campbell had been crippled for nearly five years and yet no one seemed to interest themselves in his case until T. Smith, answering an appeal from the mother, Mrs. Ernest Campbell, asking assistance for her son, started the fund so as to be able to have Leonard examined by Vancouver specialists. It was then we realized how generous the citizens of Prince Rupert were because enough money was raised to take Leonard to Vancouver and also pay for treatments which we are now doing.

Yes, Mr. Grieves, Mr. Traxler deserves a big thank you as you say, but so does every other big hearted citizen who helped. It was I, Mrs. Ross Richardson, who gave the Vancouver Sun the story of Leonard's life in Prince Rupert, hoping to get help for the lad. This "splash," as you call it, Mr. Grieves, was the only means of my getting help for Leonard as everywhere I went no one seemed to want to help me find a home for him and many a door was closed against me just because I met the wrong people. The same applies to any city or town.

As far as taking the credit or getting thanks, all we get is criticism. However, I wish to thank you, Mr. Grieves, for your criticism of the work we have done for Leonard as it shows that the citizens of Prince Rupert are not so bad after all.

Thank you, Mr. Editor, for your space in this paper.
MRS. ROSS RICHARDSON.
