When Mr. and Mrs. George Frizzell arrived last week at their hot springs home on the Skeena River to take up residence for the season they found that, during their winter absence, the main house and one cabin had been completely stripped of blankets, mattresses, dishes, kitchenware, and provisions. It was a wholesale looting and estimate of the goods removed is placed by the owners at about $400. ouver: F-O C. C Women's faults are many,
