

EDWARD EVANS LIED AT REST

Many old friends were in attendance at the Grenville Court chapel of the B.C. Undertakers yesterday afternoon for the funeral of an esteemed resident of seventy-seven years' standing in Prince Rupert—the late Edward Evans, Eighth Avenue West, who passed away last Friday morning at the Prince Rupert General Hospital. Mr. Evans had many years been employed at the local fish plants. He is survived by his widow and three children to whom general sympathy is extended.

Rev. R. A. Wilson, pastor of St. United Church, officiated at the final rites and Mrs. J. C. Baker presided at the organ to accompany the hymns which included "Nearer My God to Thee" and "What a Friend We Have in Jesus."

Many beautiful floral tributes testified to the esteem in which he was held. Among those who presented flowers were wife and family, Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Pollock (Tereherne, Manitoba), Mr. and Mrs. William Delf and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Walker (Tereherne, Manitoba), Mr. and Mrs. Ole Martinson, Deep Sea Fishermen's Union, Manager and Staff of Capital Theatre, Mr. and Mrs. T. Anderson and Melvin, Mr. and Mrs. Shier, Mr. and Mrs. H. Hale and family, Mr. and Mrs. C. Knutson and family, Mr. and Mrs. K. Monteith, Mr. and Mrs. G. Alexander, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Carlson, Mr. and Mrs. G. Giske, Mr. and Mrs. R. Jensen and Robert, Mr. and Mrs. Shrubbsall and family, Mr. and Mrs. I. Hanson and Olof, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Morrow and family, Mr. and Mrs. William Thompson, Mrs. F. Chandler and Glen, Mr. and Mrs. A. Steinhart, Mr. and Mrs. B. Sylvester and family, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Simonds, and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Scharf.

SINGLE MEN MAKE MONEY

OTTAWA ©—The attention of girls is invited! There were 67 single male Canadians making more than $100,000 a year in 1946. Married men who earned more than that numbered only 42 according to figures tabled in the House of Commons Monday.

Britain Will Come Through

British Laborite County Councillor Here to Visit His Son Who Came Seven Years Ago as Refugee

Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Simmons of Sheath Lane, Oxshott, England, who sent their 14-year old son, Victor Rowland, out to this country as a refugee boy in 1940 during the height of the blitz, have arrived from the Old Country to visit the boy who is now a grown man. Victor came out here to reside with Mr. and Mrs. Sunbury of Georgetown. Mr. Sunbury has since died but Victor is still at Georgetown in the employ of the sawmill and box factory of which Mr. Sunbury was manager. Mr. and Mrs. Simmons, who were in Toronto for some time before coming on here, expect to make an extended visit.

Mr. Simmons, who is a van driver at Oxshott, is also a labor member of the urban district council. Conditions in England, he admitted, are more uncomfortable today from the food standpoint than they were during the war but "Britain will come out of it" he says "if she keeps steady." He expressed confidence that the Labor government, with its policies, will pull through.

FILLING PEACE TIME FUNCTION

Sandspit Established as Commercial Airbase Now

SANDESPIT — Four employees of the Department of Transport and an agent for Canadian Pacific Airlines comprise the staff of war-built Sandspit airport which has now become the pivotal centre of commercial aviation as a plane transfer port on the new scheduled air service between Prince Rupert and Vancouver.

The operator-agent for CPA is Archie Hunter who arrived from Vancouver two weeks ago. For the Department of Transport the almost foreman is A. Powie, the others posted here in the civilian aviation branch of the Department of Transport being Joe Bowker, George McLaren and Fred Keller. Mrs. McLaren is a British war bride. Mrs. Keller is the former Kay Baker of Prince Rupert.

GET APARTMENT AFTER 20 YEARS' WAIT—It's a big day for Mr. and Mrs. Frank J. Littlefield, London, for after a 20-year's wait they at last have an apartment of their own. In 1927, after their marriage, they applied for a council house. As they waited their family grew. They now have 11 children. The chances of getting a place big enough seemed remote. Two months ago a bus demolished the temporary accommodations at which they had been living and so they moved to a rest centre. Now their application for a council flat has been approved. They watch as the piano is moved in.

SEATTLE FLEET STILL TIED UP

SEATTLE ©—Efforts to end the Seattle halibut fleet tieup ended in failure Monday when the Fishing Vessel Owners' Association rejected a compromise offer from the Deep Sea Fishermen's Union who voted to raise the owner's share from last year's twenty per cent to twenty-one. The owners suggested 23 1/2 percent. Two hundred vessels have been tied up since May 1.
