

TERRACE

EXODUS OF TEACHERS; EXAMS ARE BEING FINISHED AT HIGH SCHOOL

The exodus of teachers from Terrace commences today when Mrs. Alice Campbell, Mrs. Ella Hamilton, Miss Frieda James and Miss Anne Lips will leave by train in order to depart for Vancouver by boat tonight. Mrs. Campbell is being accompanied by her young daughter and will visit in loco with her grandparents and in Seattle with her mother before returning to Terrace to rejoin her husband here.

Mrs. Hamilton and Miss James are going to attend the Victoria Summer School of Education. When the session is over, Mrs. Hamilton will return to Terrace where her mother, Mrs. Greenwood, is remaining for the summer. Miss James will be married to M. Taylor of Vancouver. A honeymoon trip to California is planned and the young couple will take up residence in southern British Columbia. Miss Lips will travel east from Vancouver, stopping at points of interest enroute, to spend a part of the summer in Ottawa, where her brother, Dr. A. J. Lips, is with the staff of the Department of National Research. She is also planning a short visit to New York City. H. F. Noakes and B. A. Barr will leave on Friday night's train. Mr. Noakes to attend the Victoria summer school and Mr. Barr to mark examination papers for the Department of Education. Mr. Barr plans to return by boat, thus making a triangle trip. Mrs. R. Squires and Mrs. W. Laird are remaining in Terrace for the summer.

F. P. Levirs, inspector of schools, made a trip to Terrace at the beginning of the week to bring examination papers on electrical engineering for W. Chesler. These examination papers had come all the way from England and Mr. Chesler is writing them at the same time the Grade 11 and 12 pupils are writing their examinations. Mrs. R. Squires is supervising.

Grade 12 pupils writing examinations are Norbert Cote and Dolly Haugland. Grade 11 pupils writing examinations are Betty Bissonnette, Onnolee Kirkaldy, Helen Somerville, Violet Jackson, Roberta Lambly, Edna Toop, Charles Cote, Parker Mills and Jim Kennedy.

Friends of Oscar Olander are pleased with reports received that he is making satisfactory progress in the Prince Rupert General Hospital.

After an absence of fifteen years from Terrace, C. W. Homer, ex-provincial assessor, was here last Thursday. He had a very interesting time meeting old friends, travelling around the district and seeing the advancement that has been made since he was here last. As the C.N.R. train was late and he had his passage booked south for Thursday night's boat, he made the journey from here to Prince Rupert by car.

John Hagen left on Saturday for Prince Rupert and will bring his mother, Mrs. William Hagen, back from the Prince Rupert General Hospital where she has been receiving treatment for a fractured leg.

Mr. and Mrs. Madsen of California were here last Thursday looking over the district and the same evening Mr. Madsen left for Prince Rupert. On his return he reported having had a very interesting time in the coast city. He has been engaged in title research for a number of years in his native State and expressed great appreciation of the courtesy of Andrew Thompson, Deputy Registrar of Titles, Prince Rupert, who went over the B.C. system in detail with him.

FLOWERS FOR THE PRINCESS—An armful of roses was one of the rewards in store for Barbara Ann Scott when she was honored as "Princess of the Press" at the Toronto men's and women's press club second annual By-Line Ball. The lovely Miss Scott, who is Canadian and world figure skating champion, is shown here stooping to give Johnny Ferguson, 44-inch tall midget hotel bell hop, a kiss after he had presented the floral tribute.

CELEBRATION AT TERRACE

With Canadian National Railways putting on a special excursion train for the occasion, two local ladies' softball teams providing sports program highlight and the Prince Rupert Civic Band going along to enliven the day's proceedings, the Dominion Day celebration, being put on at Terrace next Tuesday by the Kinsmen's Club of the interior town, will have a distinctive Prince Rupert flavor. Numerous local motorists are also expected to make the trip.

As soon as the special train from the coast pulls into Terrace about 11:30 a.m., there will be a parade to the grounds. Children's sports will be followed by a log chopping contest which is expected to prove quite as popular as did that on May 24. Husbands are expected to make themselves scarce when the ladies compete in rolling pin hurling. The Kinsmen are awaiting response to their tug-of-war challenge, this event to be followed by a baseball game between Terrace All-Stars and Hazelton Lions. Next on the list will be the girls' softball game between the two Prince Rupert teams—Gordon and Anderson and Rainbirds.

Civic Centre grounds will be the centre of things for the day and an added attraction will be the operation for the first time of the newly installed bowling alleys.

Capt. McLean Recovering Slowly

Captain Neil McLean, formerly of the Canadian National SS service between Prince Rupert and Vancouver is gradually recovering from the effects of an injured knee cap which he sustained months ago when he had a fall. It is a tedious process and takes time but he is getting better. Friends in Prince Rupert recently heard from him and later in the summer he may be able to visit here. One of Capt. McLean's sons is travelling in the prairie provinces. Another expects soon to be in the navy.

AIR PASSENGERS

Passengers arriving yesterday afternoon by Canadian Pacific Airlines from Vancouver were H. Linder, A. V. Lehman, and C. Giske, and C. C. McKenzie from Sandspit. Leaving on this afternoon's plane were Mrs. S. Willson for Sandspit and C. Winton Thompson, H. B. Thompson and H. G. Sullivan for Vancouver.

RICHARD WIELDS STRAIGHT SWORD

LONDON (AP)—Richard Coeur de Lion will wield a straight sword as he sits in a statuesque pose outside the Houses of Parliament.

The sword was bent during the 1940-41 blitz and left that way as a "symbol of strength," representing battered but unbeaten Britain.

Now the Ministry of Works has removed it. The entire statue will be cleaned and the sword replaced—straight.

SHIPS AND WATERFRONT

The Briggs Steamship Co. cargo vessel Southeastern, Capt. Alexander Barov, docked here at 3:30 Wednesday afternoon on her second trip back to Prince Rupert since she went into the Alaska service earlier this month. She carried about 60 tons of freight, consisting of one carload of frozen fish, two carloads of tierces and the balance general. The frozen fish is destined for the Chicago market, while the tierces, mild cured salmon, will be shipped to New York. Outbound today, she loaded two carloads of hay, bound for Juneau, four automobiles and a variety of general cargo for the various Alaska ports.

Assistant Purser Don Jenkins of the Canadian National steamer Prince Rupert was not aboard the vessel when it docked here Wednesday from Vancouver on its weekly run to Prince Rupert and Ketchikan. Mr. Jenkins was at home in Vancouver receiving treatment for a broken wrist which he suffered when he stumbled over a pile of baggage just at the Prince Rupert wharf at Vancouver at the termination of last week's trip. Replacing him as assistant purser was Elmer Heath, formerly of the Prince Rupert and Prince George, but who has been attending University since his return from overseas. The Prince Rupert arrived at 12:45 noon from the south, sailed at midnight for Ketchikan and will be back here tonight southbound.

The 60-foot Vancouver yacht Meander, owned and operated by George Kidd, former head of B.C. Electric Co., of Vancouver, stopped in port briefly Wednesday afternoon in the course of a northern cruise. It entered the harbor shortly after 1 p.m. and sailed again about 3 o'clock.

The fishing vessel Northern Breeze from Vancouver was in Prince Rupert yesterday.

CITY'S SCHOOLS CLOSE TOMORROW

Closing Day Tomorrow—Various Summer Activities

Shakespeare's classic definition of the schoolboy "creeping like snail unwillingly to school" will do a complete reverse turn in the city's four public schools on Friday as those buildings debouch almost a thousand youngsters eagerly set to take advantage of the freedom inherent in two months' summer holidays.

Final class assemblies will be held tomorrow after which the holidays are officially here for minds fagged by ten months of diligent scholarship. For the teachers who administered the "farnin'" the next two months will provide opportunity for them to stoke up on more information and pedagogical technique, preparatory for the 1947-48 term.

Many of the older students will find summer jobs which will provide pocket money and clothing for them during the next term. Others will laze at home, taking the word "holiday" at its most exact meaning.

Most of the teachers will spend at least part of the next two months at summer school, where their usual roles will be reversed as they absorb instruction in scholastic and academic subjects and teaching methods.

King Edward elementary school this afternoon planned a picnic which Principal R. G. Moore said would be held at McOlymont Park, weather permitting. Borden Street School is holding an "open house" for parents as its final gesture of the term, Principal J. S. Wilson said.

The week-end will see almost a score of teachers leaving the
