Now We Are The Worst

THE TOWN OF LADYSMITH on Vancouver Island, which a Department of Education official said a few years ago was the one city in British Columbia with worse school accommodation than Prince Rupert, is to have a new juniorsenior high school, plans having been forwarded to the Department of Education for approval prior to the necessary money bylaw being presented to the property owners. That will then leave Prince Rupert with the worst school buildings in all of British Columbia.

We talk about our poor streets, our collapsing sewer system, our failing waterworks. Matching the other public property in inadequacy and an-

Piloted by Alderman George B. Casey, himself almost an octogenarian, Prince Rupent's "Over Seventy" Association is out to get the old age pension raised and made available to men and women in lower age groups. The group is seeking a pension of $50 a month. Acting as a resolutions committee, Alderman Casey today mailed copies of such a resolution to high federal and provincial leaders and members after it had been unanimously approved by the "Over Seventy" group at its pre-Christmas banquet on December 19. The resolution, which was proposed at the dinner by Alderman Casey and bore the approving signatures of C. J. Stevens, Ed Shannon, Helen Henderson and Mrs. W. W. Smeeton, was carried unanimously . It termed the old age pension as the others as fellow Canadians. * FDD Radio Dial LIIN 1240 Kilocycles (Subject to change)  The resolution urged: WEDNESDAY-P.M. 1.
