DENTAL CARE AND YOUNG CHILDREN

At the regular meeting of the Borden Street Parent-Teacher Association in the school on Wednesday last two matters of immediate and local importance were discussed.

One was the need for parents of pre-school age children to become members of the Parent-Teacher Association and so prepare themselves to assist their children who will be school beginners in their big adventure of going to school. Belief was expressed that if these parents would join the association, they could learn much to their benefit by discussion of the various problems with parents who have already had the experience and with the teachers who have had it many times.

The need for adequate dental staff for the city was mentioned. A recommendation was passed to be presented to the Parent-Teacher Council during the parent body to make the strongest possible representations to the dental society of the province to have more dentists located here.

The existing condition, it was declared, is causing suffering at present and will create an even more serious situation in the future unless remedial steps are

MANY TO COME TO CONVENTION

Plans for the annual convention of the Associated Boards of Trade of Central British Columbia, to be held here early in August, were further advanced at a meeting yesterday afternoon of W. J. Scott, chairman of the convention committee, and other members thereof. Sub-committees are getting their particular assignments started to handle the visitors which there is every reason to expect will reach an unprecedented heavy number with acceptances of invitations already pouring in from the central interior, Alaska and further afield. Feature events, in addition to regular sessions, are expected to include an all-fish luncheon and a large mixed banquet.

Delightful Affair by Chance of St. Andrew's Cathedral
Rare spring blossoms from local gardens decked the home of the Mayor, Mrs. Nora Arnold yesterday afternoon where ladies of the Chance Guild, St. Andrew's Cathedral, entertained during the tea hour.

Mrs. K. Greer, president of the Guild, and the hostess Mrs. Arnold, were kept busy receiving the numerous callers. Mrs. Lionel Holtby and Mrs. C. C. Mills presided at the tea table which was covered with an exquisite white cloth featuring fine Chinese drawn-work embroidery. Parrot tulips and white tapers formed an elegant centerpiece.

Mrs. F. E. Anfield and Mrs. W. J. Lineham were in charge of a tempting home cooking table. Serving and catering were Mrs. Grosvenor, Mrs. P. W. Mar-

CRISIS IN DENTISTRY

Possibility that Prince Rupert may soon be left for six weeks without a practising dentist available due to absence for one reason or another of the regular practitioners has aroused some concern and the Prince Rupert Chamber of Commerce is among organizations interesting themselves in the matter with a view to obtaining some relief. Communication has been opened with the registrar of the College of Dental Surgeons suggesting the opportunity for dental practice here. If Prince Rupert were left without a dentist it would mean there would be none north of Ocean Falls or west of Burns Lake.
