Angus Macdonaid of Alice Arm passed through town recently on his way to Vancouver n connection with further development work on the well known Esperanza mine property at Alice Arm. Just now, four men are timbering the mine workings. This is preliminary to starting shipments from a new vein which reveals good values in gold and silver.

Mrs. Ross Mansell arrived in the city on the Princess Adelaide Monday night and will be here for the next week. Since she was last in Prince Rupert last fall, Mrs. Mansell has travelled extensively with her husband in Eastern Canada and the United States, covering ten thousand miles by motor and visiting such cities as New York, Montreal, Toronto, Chicago, Salt Lake City, Reno and Sheyenne. However, Prince Rupert still looks very good to her.
