hand the visitors a 40-21 drubbing. The Sea Cadet squad, made up mostly of Junior City League players, jumped into an early lead and were out in front all the way. Lack of teamwork and tough luck on their shooting kept the lads from the ships on the short side all the way first quarter mark with the Sea Cadets in the driver's seat. At the half it was 28-15.

The game slowed down after the breather but the junior composite team kept forging right along with the scoreboard reading 38-19 at the opening of the fourth frame. Only one field basket was dropped in during the last stanza and that was by the Navy but the Sea Cadets dropped in a brace of charity tosses to keep the margin the Coach Syd Woodside's potential Hanson Cup winners face a tough future, even if they do succeed in winning the silver mug from the combined forces H.M.C.S. Uganda and Crescent in this afternoon's soccer classic. Challenging forces are gathering against them.

These forces are another aggregation of home-grown talent who feel that they have nothing to lose but their lives, so why not spend them reviving soccer pert summer sport picture.

Thus, since Woodside's Wonders are the only or vonents on the horizon, they are to be challenged to a game at Roose. velt Park on Sunday afternoon.
