Four Sea Cadets Are Promoted

Announcement of the promotion of four members of Captain Cook Corps of the Royal Canadian Sea Cadets was made Wednesday afternoon by Lieut. Commander Alex Mitchell, commanding officer of the corps. The promotions involve Leonard Youngman from the rank of midshipman to sub-lieutenant, and Bob McChesney, Laurie Eddy and John Kennedy from the rank of chief petty officers to midshipmen.

URGING SALE OF WARTIME HOUSES

A two-man delegation which inspired Alderman Casey's resolution on Monday night's council meeting seeking to make wartime houses available for private purchase consisted of Ray Johnson and Mr. Prusky who told council that they were convinced that there would be a ready sale for the houses if they were made available.

The resolution made reference only to houses which "were constructed along streets where the city is compelled to maintain ordinary services, such as water, lights, sidewalks, streets, sewers and telephone services in connection with other privately-owned homes."

It urged that the City Clerk contact both Wartime Housing and the government with a "view to arranging whereby persons wishing to make such purchases may be able to do so in any of the localities described."

Mayor Arnold expressed sympathy with the proposal, but emphasized that it would not be feasible to support the private purchase of wartime houses in subdivisions where there are no other privately-built homes.

"The city cannot put itself in a position whereby it would have to maintain services in areas where there might be only three or four isolated houses, Rushbrook Heights, for instance," she said.

Alderman Black insisted that the city try and enter an agreement in which the city would receive some financial return from the sale of lots by Wartime Housing to private individuals.

"Council should have a clear-cut understanding with Wartime Housing in regard to disposition of the land. We have no knowledge of what they may decide to do, and we should try to obtain some payment for lots that were taken from us for a dollar."

Charlie Encounters Bacchus-and Police-In Chief's Bathroom

That wine is a mocker and betrayer of those who indulge in it is a precept that Charlie Henry, Port Simpson native, will readily subscribe. It betrayed Charlie badly last night and this morning he was ordered by the police magistrate to contribute $25 to the civic coffers by way of a fine for intoxication.

According to testimony in court this morning, Charlie had been picked up last night in a place that is definitely off limits. How he got there is a question that Bacchus, god of revelry, alone could answer. Charlie was arrested by Police Sgt. L. A. N. Potterton—in Sgt. Potterton's bathroom in the Summit Apartments.

Queen Mary when the Second Great War broke out.

Fred Scadden, pioneer local painter, while leaving here later than Mr. Read, will also catch the Queen Elizabeth on the same sailing from New York. It will be his first visit home to the Old Country in many years.

Mrs. W. M. Brown will also be embarking from New York on the May 9 sailing of the Queen Elizabeth. She is to revisit her old home in England for the first time since she came to Canada as the bride of the late W. M. Brown after World War I. Mrs. Brown may be accompanied on the trip to the Old Country by her daughter, Mrs. Helen Malack of Essex, Ontario. Mrs. Brown's only son, William, lost his life while serving with the Royal Canadian Air Force in World War II.

NATIVE CHILD DIES

Ellen Trimble, nine-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chris Trimble, died in Miller Bay Hospital last night. Burial will take place at Fairview Cemetery.

Acclaimed everywhere as one of the greatest pictures of the year and admittedly a strong contender for Academy award, the dramatic love story, "To Each His Own," with Olivia De Havilland and John Lund starring, is being presented this Thursday, Friday and Saturday at the Capitol Theatre. Noted as a stage star, this is Lund's screen debut.

Briefly, "To Each His Own" is the story of a girl who lives a lifetime in the few hours she has in which to meet and fall in love with a flying hero of World War I. It tells of the anguish and sacrifices that are hers when she gives up the son born of that love in order to relieve him of the stigma of an illicit birth. It carries through to a heart-tugging finale when mother and grown son meet again in a scene fraught with potent dramatic possibilities. The role is said to be a fitting climax to Miss De Havilland's great screen career. Lund is first the lover and then the son.

The supporting cast includes Victoria Horne, who appears as a nurse and good friend of Miss De Havilland; Griff Barnett, as a kind and understanding father, Mary Anderson, Phillip Terry, Roland Culver and Bill Goodwin.

LOCAL PEOPLE ON BIG BESS

Will Be Sailing From New York May 9 to Visit in Old Country

When the world's greatest passenger liner Queen Elizabeth sails May 9 from New York for Southampton she will have on board at least three Prince Rupert people heading for England and Scotland to revisit their native homes in the Old Land.

E. F. Read of the Capitol Theatre staff will leave here April 21 and will pay a visit to New York before embarking. He goes to London, his native city, and is booked for his return voyage leaving Southampton September 11. Mr. Reid made his last trip to the Old Country in 1939 and was on the Atlantic aboard the
