Again Heads Business and Professional Women's Club

At the annual meeting of the Business and Professional Women's Club held in the Civic Centre, Miss Frances Cross was re-elected president.

Reports for the year were read by the various officers covering activities of the club during its second year of operation.

Program for the annual provincial meeting of the Blue Ridge Mountain Resort near Chilliwack to be held in May was read. Prince Rupert club is allotted two delegates.

New Moose Home Is Much Admired

Election of officers for the coming year resulted as follows: Honorary President, Mrs. Nora Arnold.

President, Miss Frances Cross. Vice-President, Miss Clover Malden.

Secretary, Miss Joan Cross. Treasurer, Miss Audrey Wrathall.

Executive—Miss Frances Partridge (finance), Mrs. P. M. Ray (legislative), Miss Eleanor Moxley (publicity), Miss Honora Silversides (program and social), Miss Kay Reid (educational), Miss Evie Rivett (membership).

Miss Ellen Kinnaird was appointed representative to the Women's Co-ordinating Council. At conclusion of the meeting refreshments were served.

A Vancouver visitor, Mr. Baer, first saw Prince Rupert in 1908 and again in 1914. Now he is back for the first time since then. He is a salesman and is here on business. It is a coincidence to note that, when he was in the city in April, 1914, his sister-in-law sent a telegram saying he had become the father of a son. On the present trip, the son advised him by wire that he also had become a father, and that the sister-in-law who had sent the telegram in 1914 had passed away.

Harry Black Lines Up Itinerary for Manson Medal Contest
J. Harry Black, president of the Prince Rupert Automobile Association, is not thinking seriously of going to Florida so that he may drive back to Prince Rupert and win the handsome Al Manson medal for the first motorist to drive the 4693 miles this year from the Keystone State to Prince Rupert, but he has been busy figuring out an interesting itinerary for the trip. Here is how Mr. Black would make the trip:
Miami to Atlanta, 683 miles; to Memphis, 421; to St. Louis, 322; to Kansas City, 254; Omaha, 213; Cheyenne, 483; Yellowstone Park, 562; Helena, 223; Spokane, 225; Grand Coulee, 92; Oroville, 93; Penticton, 51; Kamloops, 145; Cache Creek, 56; Prince George, 292; Smithers, 245; Prince Rupert, 236.

William Hanson Makes Recovery
William Hanson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Olof Hanson, who sustained serious head injuries in a fall on a curling rink at Smithers during the past winter and has been in Vancouver for some weeks receiving treatment at the hands of specialists, has now recovered his eyesight and otherwise is making excellent recovery. In a few months it is expected he will be fully restored to normal.
