Museum Board Given Former City Library

Permission for the Prince Rupert Museum to take over the former library building on Second Avenue has been obtained from the provincial Department of Lands and Forests, Mayor Nora Arnold told city council last night in reporting on her recent trip to Victoria.

The library building, vacated by the library last October, contains the museum exhibits on the top floor but the ground floor is now unused. The Museum Board has been seeking to obtain use of the lower floor.

Also arranged with Lands Minister Kenney was permission for the Prince Rupert Health Unit to use the whole of the building which it now occupies, instead of merely half. The unused part of the Health Unit building was claimed by the Museum Board which now, presumably, will drop its claim since it has found a home.

HOOP TALK

For the past week "Doc" Montgomery has been shaping up a new Prince Rupert All-Star team that will represent Rupert when Ketchikan comes for a three-game series at the end of this week. The local stars are mostly taken from the Savoy squad but, in addition, there are three players from the reformed B.C. Packers team and put together they form a very strong aggregation.

The team is made up of Don Arney, Ted Arney, Bob Vuckovich, Mel Holkestad, Rupert Holkestad, Joe Davis, Sev Dominato, Sonny Beynon, Ray Haugan and Bobby Houston.

The proceeds from the game are going to the Bo-Me-Hi Rainmakers to help finance their forthcoming trip to play in the Provincial Invitation Basketball Tournament to be held in New Westminster.

ROY FRANKS IS HONORED

Typographical Union and Daily News Management Join to Make Farewell Presentation

Yesterday afternoon in the editorial sanctum of the Daily News, members of the Prince Rupert Typographical Union and management of the paper gathered to do farewell honor to a popular and long-standing member of the typographical craft, Roy Franks, prior to his departure last night for Nanaimo where he is to be located in future.

Suitable sentiments were expressed as Mr. Franks was presented by W. H. Priest, president of the Typographical Union, with a pen and pencil set and by G. A. Hunter, managing editor of the Daily News, with an inscribed wallet.

Born and raised in Prince Rupert, Roy Franks completed his apprenticeship with the Daily News and for many years since has been identified with the trade here.
