Making Promises Good

T IS QUITE A WHILE since Premier John Hart committed himself to the promise that a survey would be made of the Hazelton route northward to connect with the Alaska Highway and on to the Peace River and we had begun to wonder whether it would ever be done at all. Therefore, the announcement of Hon. E. T. Kenney, minister of lands and forests and Central British Columbia's sole representative on the government's side of the Legislature, who is now doing the rounds of this part of the country, that both a ground and aerial survey is to be undertaken this year, commencing just as soon as weather permits, is very satisfac-

The making of such a reconnaissance is in keeping with the new interest in northern and central British Columbia which is becoming so marked these days. Useful and much-needed information will be obtained about the route which we have long claimed as being the best one, particularly as far as the natural resources it will tap are concerned and also in regard to conditions for winter operation and maintenance. It is particularly gratifying that P. M. Monckton, an old timer of this part of the country and a good friend, should be put in charge of the survey.

THE CONSUMER'S TURN

ERTAIN WOMEN'S GROUPS are endeavouring to promote a buyers' strike in Canada. The tactics of the groups seem to smack of Communistic influence, and Canadians are getting bored by the Communists, to say the least.

But this is not to say that a buyers' strike is an impossibility. Such a strike occurred spontaneously in 1920, and prices came down with a rush. The point about that strike was that it was spontaneous. Consumers almost overnight realized that it might be better to save a little money for a rainy day than to squander it on merchandise they didn't really want. The atrociously colored silk shirts that been created to attract the wages of munition workers were left on the merchants' shelves. People stopped buying luxuries entirely and became reluctant even to buy necessities.

Prices came down because there were cancellations of orders on a large scale and merchants would not reorder until they could get prices at which they could be sure of passing on the goods to the public. As orders fell off at the factories, workers were laid off or had their hours reduced and their incomes shrank accordingly.

The incident was a striking illustration of the -fact that, in the long run, the consumer is the boss. There are signs that he is again feeling his power. Only the other day a man who disliked the lack of service that greeted him in one shop where he had gone to buy a suit walked out and placed his order elsewhere. We may yet see the day when an employer will feet safe in firing a clerk who makes the common error of regarding customers only as nuisances to be suppressed.

BOSS WHO IS POOR

A ESSRS. COLDWELL, GILLIS AND CO. are shouting to high heaven because some of Canada's employers made money last year.

In 1946, the country was at the peak of peacetime prosperity. Wartime excess-profits taxes had been removed from individuals and partnerships and reduced for corporations.

Employers who couldn't make money in 1946 are poor prospects as employers. The outlook would be poor for Canada. The great depression of the 'thirties would not have happened if employers had been able to make money. The poorest type of boss is the boss who is poor.

MOTHER'S DAY

MOTHER may be a young woman, may be a lovely grey-haired woman. Mother may be a young bride with her first-born or a grandmother or a woman of any and every age between.

Though thousands of miles may separate mother and child; though their opinions differ and sense of values vary, their love for each other which is the truest, purest love, unites them for all time and under all circumstances. It is Mother who is always forgiving and conciliatory. It is Mother who forgets the unpleasant-and cherishes the pleasant memories. It is Mother to whom we dedicate this Sunday, with remembrances to comfort and delight her in small measure as she comforts and delights us all our lives.

LETTERBOX

GRATEFUL TO CANCER FUND

Editor. Daily News:

Having returned from Vancouver two weeks ago, after undergoing radium and x-ray treatments for cancer, I would like to address the citizens of Prince Rupert. There are some among us that do not know and cannot realize the wonderful work the B.C. Cancer Institute is doing. Their clinic as rull of people all the time. The doctors and nurses are overworked yet cheerful and efficient. They need hospital beds and equipment desperately.

Cancer is no respecter of age, and could strike you or one of your loved ones tomorrow. I urge you to give generously to such a worthy cause.

I can not speak too highly of this organization, because they saved my life. I was in their care for three months and because of my circumstances did not have to pay. Yet I received the best of care and was treated as graciously as the wealthiest patient.

Since I am so indebted to the B.C. Cancer Institute, I would like to feel that this letter helped in a small way during their drive

In closing I would also like to give thanks to the I.O.D.E. here in Prince Rupert for their kind assistance during my recent ill-

A GOOD MOTHER'S POWER

(By ADJUTANT P. L. GORRIE, Salvation Army)

Scripture Portion: Proverbs 31:10-31.

Text: "I call to remembrance the unfeigned faith that is in thee, which dwelt first in thy grandmother, Lois, and thy mother, Eunice." 2 Tim. 1:5.

We can imagine a gleam of joy in the Apostle her hand on my head she prayed Paul's eye as he writes about a faith "unfeigned" that I might follow her to heav-Paul is happy because a young preacher would carry on in the same faith after he, Paul, was no more. As Paul contemplates this youth the forces back of his life are not forgotten—the faith of a grandmother, then of a mother, each ! planting in the heart of a growing child a portion of her own faith, and witnessing it's development. Paul, realizing the value of a good mother's influence, rejoices.

THE CHURCH OF GOD spring, because her soul is plant ed by "the rivers of waters." The mother who cares for the spiritual well being of her child.

> What are the sources of a good mother's power? The child is under her influence and teaching from the start of life and 'first impressions are lasting. Sometimes, it is true, in the later years rougher and more forceful hands seem to obliterate her teachings for a while but her efforts are not lost. There are
