Halibut Deliveries In Full Swing Although Not Excessive So Far-Trollers and Netters Also in Game

Halibut deliveries have now got into full swing. Landings from the regular fleet began on Tuesday with the arrival of three vessels bearing 60,000 pounds and became heavier each day until Friday when they pyramided into a single day's delivery of 409,500 pounds. Landings up to Friday, excluding camp-bought fish, totalled 777,- 1 500 pounds.

NEW VESSEL ON KETCHIKAN RUN

As a companion vessel to the well known Ketchikan fish packer Sydney, Captains Joe Burdette and Osmund Hendrickson have put into service a new 85- | foot shovel-nosed power barge, the Dagney, which made its first ! trip to Prince Rupert Friday carrying five carloads of fish for shipment over C.N.R. lines to the United States. The new vessel has a capacity about the same as the Sydney, which arrived here snortly before the Dagney, carrying four carloads. The Syaney is under command of Capt. Hendrickson! nd the Dagney under Capt.

The Dagney is a conventional power barge, with her twin 115 h.p. Cateppillar diesel engines and her living cuarters aft. The big, insulated cargo box in which her perishable cargoes are carried occupies virtually all the deck space forward of the pilot

All of the cargo is carried above the main deck. The hull is heavily bulkheaded and carries the oil and water tanks aft. The vessel has full pilot house control, and carries a crew of four men.

For handling cargo, the Dagney has two heavy cargo booms and hydraulic winches.
