Rebuilding Of Europe Vital Need

Europe and United States aid as proposed by General George C. Marshall, United States Secretary of State. The Moscow radio stated that Friday would be suitable time for the starting of the conference of foreign ministers in Paris. It was agreed that the main task in Europe now was that of reconstruction with United States and Great Britain participating. Earlier had been stated here that such reconstruction should be possible despite the differences in economic policies within nations.

NO ACCORD YET IN NORTH FISH PRICE PARLEY

A meeting of white and native opening of the north coast sockeye season on June 29.

The fishermen-members the United Fishermen and Allied Workers Union and the Native Brotherhood of B. C .- are insisting that agreements be reached covering all types of gillnettheir nets for sockeye. The sockeye price already has been set at 15 cents a pound for all areas, union officials say.

Separating the two groups is a margin of only one-quarter cent a pound, according to the fishermen. Asking 31/2 cents a pound in the Skeena and Naas river districts, they rejected canners' offer of 31/4 cents which was an increase of one-27-year-old woman's death as quarter cent a bound over the
