Moose Card Party, Dance Sport Jackets $24.00 to $40.00

Scores of People in Attendance at Affair on Saturday

The Loyal Order of Moose was host Saturday night to scores of members and their friends who gathered to enjoy the whist and dance program.

Card playing, under the direction of William Terry, took up the early part of the evening. Prize winners were: Mrs. Sahlstrom and Mrs. Feasby, who tied for second place honors with Mrs. King. Mr. Le Claire and Mr. Turnovcy.

Dancing commenced at ten o'clock, with W. D. Weiss as master of ceremonies and music provided by Roberts' Orchestra. During intermission refreshments were served and prizes distributed.

Committee members in charge of the affair were William Terry, chairman; Percy Bond, Everett Morrow. Joe Long, Joe Ratchford, W. D. Waiss and Malcolm Blair, who were assisted by other members.
