SHIPS and WATERFRONT

Some thirty round trippers were here yesterday aboard the Union steamer Camosun, Capt. William McCombe, which was in port from 2:40 to 9 p.m. on the way back to Vancouver from Masset Inlet points. Another contingent of local passengers embarked on the vessel here for the south. Also in port last evening was the Camosun's sister ship Coquitlam, Capt. John Boden, which arrived in port at 6:45 p.m. and sailed, after unloading upwards of 100 tons of local cargo, for Alice Arm and Stewart whence she will return here tomorrow morning to sail south at 1:30 p.m.

The Dominion government hydrographic survey-ship William J. Stewart was a week-end visitor in port moored at the ocean dock. The vessel took on supplies. She is now operating in waters contiguous to this port.

New Rector Is Ordained

In an ordination sermon yesterday at St. Andrew's Cathedral, Canon Basil S. Procter summed up the call of the Ministry of the church as the call to be servants of Christ and servants of men for Christ's sake. This is the way it is in the Gospel and the way it has always been in the Church and by direct emphasis especially in the first ordination to the diaconate.

M. S. Young, the candidate, who proceeds to the Masset Inlet Mission, was welcomed as one who came not through university channels but from the university of daily living and experience as a pioneer and a man of business in Christian living and lay church work. During many years he had been known as a man who knew and loved the Word of God. Reference was made to the illustrious missionary history of Masset and the work of Archdeacon W. H. Colison and Father Hogan.

The ordination and examination was carried out by Bishop Gibson. Assisting at the service were Canon G. A. Hinchliffe of Smithers and The Rev. Charles Lomas of the Northern Cross.

It was by happy chance that these clergymen were able to be present. Canon Hinchliffe is here to take a holiday trip on the Northern Cross which is now sailing northward on the monthly visit to Alice Arm and Stewart and other points along the way. Before going over to Metlakatla for the service there yesterday, it was possible for the Mission Ship to stay long enough for these men to share in the Ordination.

from Vancouver were Mrs. Peterson, T. Hudson, H. Abbott, J. Hayes, F. Bailey, M. L. Stephens. Embarking here were Mrs. H. Johansen, D. Hixon, G. N. Clark, A. J. Newman, George Means, Mrs. E. Inglett, Miss T. Eyford, Miss P. Eyford, for Ketchikan; C. D. Bloomfield, Juneau. Among those aboard was Cst. I. D. Fisher, R.C.M.P., who is being transferred to Whitehorse.

The missionary vessel Lower Light, from Oregon, formerly a military crash boat, that called in Prince Rupert about a week ago on her way north sailed from Juneau Friday for Sitka and Skagway. She will be in Portland again, by Labor Day. It is also planned to visit Taku.
