Presentation At Football Dance

The Prince Rupert Football Association held a very successful dance at the Canadian Legion Auditorium on Saturday | City 1 evening when seventy-five couples attended a function at which the presentation of trophies won | (overtime tie). during the season took place.

In making the presentations | tion was enthusiastically endor-President Jack Wilson thanked sed. the donors who so willingly gave the handsome trophies for competition. To the Canadian Legion went the North Star trophy the captains, had helped to donated by the North Star Bottling Works and the Manson Trophy donated by Manson's Jewellers. The popular Brick Eby, captain, received the trophies on behalf of the team. To the Heavy Battery went the Sheardown Trophy, presented by Sheardown Grocers, and the Labor Day Cup. These were accepted by the captain, Darrow Gomez, to the applause of the large audience.
