

TELKWA MAN HAD LONG MOTOR TRIP

Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Bussinger of Telkwa are home from a motoring trip that took them as far as Louisiana and Texas. They visited relatives in the latter state as well as in Wyoming, Washington and Idaho. Mr. Bussinger, in a talk with the Omineca Herald, said he felt sure he passed over a thousand bridges but with no water passing under any of them. California was exceptionally dry. It was certainly welcome to see no lack of water, when one returned north. While away, he lost no opportunity to tell the outside about the attractiveness of Northern B.C. and the Bulkley Valley.

ARE MARRIED IN TERRACE CHURCH

Miss Edna Robson Bride of Howard Fisher at Beautiful Ceremony

TERRACE — At a marriage ceremony, beautiful in its simplicity, Edna Loretta Robson became the bride of Howard William (Bud) Fisher, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Fisher of Terrace, on the evening of Good Friday. Beautiful spring flowers decorated Knox United Church where in the subdued light of many candles, the young couple exchanged their nuptial vows before a large gathering of guests and friends with Rev. J. A. McAllister officiating.

Playing the bridal music was Mrs. Barr and to the strains of the "Wedding March" from Lohevenen, the bride, charming in a queen's blue tulle, pink sheer blouse, hand made, halo style chapeau of bridal pink and a corsage of red rosebuds, entered the church on the arm of Art Kennedy. Preceding her down the aisle was her only attendant, Mrs. Gordon Haugland, dressed in a misty grey suit, grey hat and wearing a corsage of yellow rosebuds. Frank Green attended the groom and the ushers were Gordon Haugland and Charlie Holden.

After the ceremony, a reception was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Fisher where Mrs. Fisher, in a green printed silk dress, grey, black-trimmed hat and corsage of red rosebuds, received the guests.

The happy couple stood under a large white bell to receive the good wishes of the many guests gathered there.

Rev. J. A. McAllister proposed the toast to the bride to which the groom suitably responded.

Seated at a table decorated with streamers, tall tapers and carnations, Mrs. A. Kennedy and Mrs. Dudley Little poured tea for the guests. A three tier wedding cake, made by the bride's mother and decorated by Mrs. Florence Bailey of Terrace, stood on a small table covered with a cut work embroidered cloth. The bride, with the assistance of the groom cut the cake with due ceremony.

The lovely wedding gifts were on display in the sun porch.

The newlyweds left on the evening's train for a honeymoon in the south.

For her going away costume the bride chose a blue plaid coat, navy felt hat and navy accessories.

On their return by boat they will make their home in Terrace where the bride is on the school teaching staff.

"SUPREME SACRIFICE"
SYDNEY, Australia, — Air-line stewardess Bessie Morton made what would be considered by most women a "supreme sacrifice" recently. When the airliner on which she was hostess got into difficulty she had to throw out her small attaché case along with the rest of the baggage—and it contained several pair of nylons.
