Graduates Hear Education Head

Banquet and Dance for Bo-Me-Hi 1950 Class

Booth Memorial High School graduating class of 1950 celebrated its graduation by banqueting Friday night at the Broadway Cafe. Out of town guests included High School principals Norman Greef of Massett, Turner of Ocean Falls, also Assistant Superintendent of Education Harold L. Campbell, who addressed the graduates. Mr. Campbell years ago was superintendent of schools here.

Among the speakers were Charles Webster, chairman of the gathering, and Lawrence Kristmanson, who offered a toast to the School Board. Dr. Large responded.

A toast to the High School staff was proposed by Ann Petroff and answered by vice-principal R. D. Cleland. J. Henry of the Booth staff proposed a toast to the graduation class with Irene Reekie responding. The concluding toast was by Betty Prince, to which A. M. Hurst, principal, responded.

After the banquet, graduates and their guests attended a formal dance in the auditorium of the Civic Centre which was tastefully decorated with flowers and silhouette motifs. On the decorating committee were Lenora Faught, Joyce Tattersall, Carol Brentzen, Donna Richards, Mona Lykegard, Orven Spurn, Beth Astoria, and Lawrence Kristmanson. Evelyn Smith presided at the door.

During the evening, Master of Ceremonies Frank McFadden called two spot dances which were won by Harold Eldsvick with Elaine Bell and Bill McChesney with Leona Webster.

The many formal dressed couples danced to the music of the Three Dukes with Mrs. Norah Thompson at the piano, and Dyke MacMillan providing vocals.
