

which will long be remembered by the old "Vets" who took part in the First World War 1914-1918. J. P. Garlick was in charge of arrangements. He was assisted by Ernest Love, Jack Bouzek, G. Anderson, W. S. Orr, J. J. McKenna and Donald Norton. The ladies of the auxiliary supplied delicious beans and coffee.

SMITHERS

Smithers and District Chamber of Commerce had been endeavouring to import a dentist from England but, owing to the regulations of the British Columbia Dentists' Association, will be unable to do so, the monthly meeting of the Chamber last week was advised.

Members of the Canadian National Railways section crew at Moricetown had an exciting time for a while with a moose last week. The animal, evidently, chose to charge them as the men came along in their speeder but, finally, made off but was pursued for two miles along the track before finally making off into the bush.

A Junior Rod and Gun Club for Smithers was organized at a meeting on Saturday afternoon in the public school. Parents and clergy were also in attendance.

Miss Veril Paul became the bride of Danny Jones at a quiet ceremony last Tuesday evening in the parsonage of the United Church with Rev. L. C. Johnston officiating. The marriage took place in the presence of immediate members of the family. A reception at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Oulton followed.

Missionary Spurns Extensive Bequest

BRACEBRIDGE, Ont.—Rev. W. Kendall, 79, who not claim the extensive estate left him by his sister, at Sinnington Manor, Yorkshire, Eng.

Nearly half a century ago he arrived in Ontario as a missionary student, located in the Muskoka Indian Reservation. He chose an Iroquois girl for his wife and they found happiness. She died in 1946. She mastered the English language, aided in missionary and educational work, and distinguished herself as musician and choir leader. His sister in England lived as a recluse for 30 years. He will live out his days on the reservation.

NAMED "BEST DRESSED" OF 1948 — Among the 12 "best dressed" women in America for 1948, selected by the Fashion Academy of New York, are the three women above. They are, left to right: Maggi McNellis, commentator; Mrs. Walter Thornton, fashion promotion, and Mrs. Lauritz Melchior, opera set. The other winners of the gold medal awards were: Loretta Young, screen; Mary Livingstone, radio; Hildegard, supper clubs; Dolly O'Brien Dorells, society; Ann Delafield, business; Joan Tetzel, stage; Sonja Henie, sports; Mrs. James V. Forrestal, public life, and Virginia Leigh, debutante.

NEW HAZELTON

The Winch Memorial Hospital has been a busy place of late. There have been as many as fifty patients in the institution at one time.

Important business was dealt with at meeting of the New Hazelton Citizens' Association on Friday night including a report on the recent jamboree dance which was a highly successful affair.

Mrs. Moberley of Cedarvale has been spending a few days in Hazelton.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Hanson were in town for a few days during the week, Mrs. Hanson being here for medical attention.

The Willan sawmill has been moved from Nine Mile Mountain to the old wagon road just above town where logs will be sawn. At a later date the mill will be moved back to the Nine Mile country.

Allen Benson, president of the Hazelton and District Chamber of Commerce, returned to Hazelton at the end of the week, accompanied by his daughter, Gloria who will visit at her home.

STOOPED SCHOLAR EXTINGUISHED
Days are gone, say health authorities, when men of learning were distinguished by their stooped shoulders. Today students are trained to maintain their health, physique and posture.

ORIGINALLY IRISH
Throwing the hammer, a sport in which the athlete throws a steel weight attached to a wire and a handle, originated in Ireland about 1928 B.C.

REMEMBERED ON HIS BIRTHDAY

Fred Olsen, incapacitated for the time being and unable to leave his home at 610 Sixth Avenue West, has, however, not been forgotten by his friends and, on the occasion of his birthday, they called with offerings of gifts which were greatly appreciated by himself and his son, Paul. Among those kind friends, whom Mr. Olsen would thank if he were able, were Mr. and Mrs. Carlo Hanson and son, Carlo, Mrs. T. Lavigne and family, Mr. and Mrs. Nosum and son, Mr. and Mrs. Arsenault and family, Mr. and Mrs. Odell, Evan Neilson and nephew, Robert Jamieson, Mr. and Mrs. Atkins and children, Mr. and Mrs. A. Evens, Mr. and Mrs. Peterson, and Mr. and Mrs. Halverson and children.

FABULOUS ANIMAL
The unicorn, a fabulous horse-like animal with one horn protruding from the forehead, was described by ancient Greek and Latin writers.

George Zager had his arm broken above the elbow when it was caught in the live rollers on the edge at Little, Haugland and Kerr's lumber mill on Wednesday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. George McAdams left on Saturday for a few days' visit in Prince Rupert.

Alf Yoxall went to Prince Rupert on Saturday morning's freight train to attend the boxing tourney in Civic Centre there. He returned on Monday's train.

Timely Topics from Terrace

Candidates taking part in the Kinsmen's May Queen on May 24 are Lorna Melvin, Orange Lodge; Marie Lindstrom, Canadian Legion; Vera Frank, Women's Institute; Rosemarie Tetreault, Catholic Women's League; and Joyce Cote, Oddfellows' Lodge.

Alf Attree is a medical patient in the Terrace hospital.

Mrs. J. McLean and infant son left on Saturday for Prince Rupert where they will make their future home, Mr. McLean having joined the staff of the Ideal Cleaners.

Elsie Molitor and Noreen Oliver returned to Terrace on Thursday after having spent the past six months at a Bible school in North Battleford, Saskatchewan. Two other students, Bud Molitor and George Best, will be returning by car this week.

Local talent supplied the music for the Vimy Ridge dance held last Friday night in the Oddfellows' Hall. Frank Morris presided at the door. The affair, sponsored by the Canadian Legion was not largely attended.

Pat Johnson and Charles de Kergommeaux returned home on Monday from Prince Rupert where they were contestants in an international boxing tournament. Having won the decision from his Ketchikan opponent, young de Kergommeaux was one of the boxers presented with a silver cup and a banquet given at the Civic Centre lunch room by the Canadian Legion on Monday.
