CITY RESIDENT DIES IN SOUTH

Carl Poulsen Succumbs To Brain Tumor in Vancouver

Carl Poulsen, well known Prince Rupert business man, died Wednesday in Vancouver where he went two weeks ago for treatment of a brain tumor by medical specialists. He was 58 years old and had resided in Prince Rupert for the last eight years.

Born at Aalborg, Denmark, Mr. Poulsen went to the United States as a young man, settling at Waterloo, Iowa, where he was employed in a farm machinery plant. Later, he removed to Wayne, Alberta, where he took up farming.

He went to Vancouver just prior to the war then came to Prince Rupert in 1940. He was employed as a plater at the dry dock here for two years before opening a grocery and restaurant business on Sixth Avenue east, just east of the Hays Cove bridge.

A year ago he visited Denmark where his mother and other relatives reside. Surviving him in Canada are his wife, one son, Erling, two daughters, Betty and Inez, and two grandchildren. There are also two nephews, John and Eric Poulsen, who arrived here recently from Denmark.

Mrs. Poulsen and son, Erling, arrived in the city Thursday afternoon from Vancouver, and plan to return south today. The funeral will be held at Vancouver on Monday.

NOTICE TO AIYANSH PEOPLE—Anyone returning home with empty boats kindly stop at the Philpott, Evitt dock and pick up material for the new church. (208)

MAYOR ARNOLD, MRS. VANCE GOOD GUESSERS

Mayor Nora Arnold and Mrs. Walter Vance know their babies, at least the babies of a generation ago.

They proved it by winning the baby guessing contest at the Civic Centre Carnival. Both ladies guessed 13 out of the 22 pictures of prominent people in their infancy which were posted on the lobby wall.

Their acumen wins them each a family membership in the Civic Centre.

MISS FOR THE VICTOR delighted crowds at P.N.E.'s Exhibition Wednesday as President H. M. King congratulated Margaret Brain when she was named "Miss P.N.E., 1948." Even "Oscarlette" presented to the reigning beauty by Finance Minister Anselm seems to be holding up startled hands.
