To take the place of the Hudson's Bay Co. supply ship Nascopie, lost at Baffin Island in 1947, the 600-ton motor vessel Rupert's Land was recently Box 274 | launched in Glasgow. She is expected to commence service next ummer. The Rupert's Land is equipped with a stiffened steel prow to buck the Arctic ice fields. The ship has Canadianbuilt diesel engines.

> The cableship Restorer is due at Bamfield, Vancouver Island, December 17. While experiencing severe weather in the South Pacific she lost a considerable quantity of grappling gear and it is now necessary to report at Bamfield and then to Victoria. Before returning to the South Pacific she will be inspected and refitted.
