Between the BASKETS

As these words hit the street today, big Angus Macphee will be winging his way over Hecate Straits on his way home from the south to give his boys a hand against New Metlakatla this evening at the Civic Centre. This was one series that some had hoped would be won by the younger members of our All-Star squad and it may still be won by them for that mater. It is known George Howe has in mind to use the senior members as sparingly as possible and will try to prove something or other. Reg. Lavigne will start at guard with Sev. Dominato and will stay there unless he finds the going too tough. Ted Arney will be called upon to take Jack Lindsay's place on the scoring end of things and will be aided by Doug. Shier, who also ended well up in the point-getting department in league play after missing four or five games. Rupe. Helkestad will be at centre and, as long as he plays ball, he will stay there.

The New Metlakatla team arrived here this morning aboard the boat Maxine. In charge of Manager Reg. Booth, the team consists of Les Brendible, Harry Lang, Bill Reese, Jimmy Reese, Larry Booth, Arnold Booth, Lyle Horne, Merrill Williams, Ronald Milne, Don Bolton and Frank Bolton.

Even though there is little eye-witness information on the showing our Bo-Me-Hi lads made in the south the mere fact that they ended up third in a gathering of sixteen teams is something we are all pleased with. Alex Bill had the material to lift the championship this year and as good a team as any in the tournament, and it was very unfortunate that a mere four points should have been his downfall. Should this margin have been decisive enough to prove that Trapp Tech had the edge on the "giant killers," as one Vancouver newspaper termed the Prince Rupert lads, we might have felt better. As it happens we now feel the frustration evident in all cases such as this—if we only could have another try!

As the Senior "B" race in the south nears its final stages it looks as though either Kamloops, Powell River or Penticton may be seen here for the finals. This score will be more definite in a week or so and, as soon as word is received as to dates and opponents, Don Forward has promised that tickets will be on sale immediately.

Now that Vancouver College has won the High School title, nothing but the best is wanted here, wires began to hum last evening to try to lure the champions up here for a series with Bo-Me-Hi. Vancouver College has proven itself to be the most sports-minded school in the west and has won this Hi School title twice now. We are sure Alex Bill will welcome the chance to play these games and Don Forward is taking that for granted by trying to arrange them.

By the way, basketball fans should not forget the Red Cross these days. They have been needed before and may be needed again.
