GYPSY JAMBOREE, OPENING THREE-NIGHT STAND, DRAWS HAPPY LOT

Five hundred people followed the Gypsy trail to Job's Daughters big three-day jamboree which opened last night at the Armory and, amid merry and colorful surroundings, with plenty of novel diversions for their enjoyment, spent an interesting and happy evening.

One of the outstanding entertainment undertakings of the season, Honored Queen Lorna Donaldson and Guardian Laura Mitchell, with numerous willing and enthusiastic helpers—member girls, mothers, fathers and friends—rallying around, received the congratulations of the many who gathered last night in spite of weather conditions which were none too auspicious.

The big carnival affair continues tonight and Saturday.

Besides providing the home town folks, old and young, with a good bill of fun and entertainment, the Job's Daughters are expecting that, as a result of the affair, they will be able to augment substantially the fund being raised to finance the trip of the Bethel's colorful drill team to Spokane for an international gathering, as a result of which it is assured that Prince Rupert will be very much in the limelight of publicity.

Entering the armory through a verdant forest lane, the visitors to the jamboree find within the spacious auditorium a variety of booths, ranging from sale of useful and novel articles of handiwork through hot dog and refreshment stands to bingo tables and other carnival devices. All are staffed by girls of the Bethel and their parents and friends in gay Gypsy raiment. Upstairs is the tea room where one may relax and enjoy a cup of tea or coffee with delicious sandwiches and cake, the Gypsy motif again being predominant.

Fenced off the centre of the floor is a dancing square which attracted many last night, couples enjoying themselves to the enlivening piano music of Mrs. Norah Thompson.

the program included various group harmony numbers including a double sextette in the popular vocal mood with Edith Jordan, Diane Kennedy, Monica Holby, Marjorie Eby, Jeanne Husoy, Lalla Husoy, Don Ritchie, J. A. Teng, J. T. Langridge, Alex Mitchell, Robert Strachan and N. S. K. Brewer taking part; duets by Jeanne and Lalla Husoy and by Joanne Langridge and Alex Mitchell and solos by Barbara Teng. In addition to these Mrs. Norah Thompson's piano and vocal act and Margaret Murray's Highland Fling, with William McKay as piper, went over strong. Tonight there will be a change of program.

Is there a Secret Agreement?

Has the L.P.P. infiltrated into and is it in control of the C.C.F. of B.C.?

In the last Provincial Election the Labor Progressive Party (Communists) nominated 21 Candidates . . . yet this year there are only two Labor Progressive Party (Communist) Candidates.

We all know that the Labor Progressive Party is the Communist Party.

When the Provincial C.C.F. voted against the Atlantic Pact, was it because of heavy pressure from those who are lending their support to the C.C.F. Party?
